JUNIORS TO HAVE BIG CLASS SOIREE

Dancing and Other Entertainments to Gladden Hearts of '05 People

The Junior Informal is at last assured.

While the most important feature is to be dancing, yet other entertainments of a pleasing nature will be provided for persons not caring to "trip the light fantastic."

The nature of the decorations has not been divulged as yet, but it has been hinted they are to be exceedingly dainty. All the committees are hard at work, and the party will undoubtedly be one of the most successful ones of the year.

The additional fact that it is to be a strictly class affair, should bring the Juniors out in large numbers.

McCLUMPHA CHOSEN.

Will Represent Minnesota at Inauguration of Wisconsin's New President.

Dr. McClumpha has been elected Minnesota's representative to the Fiftieth Anniversary Jubilee of Wisconsin University.

The jubilee is going to be the most elaborate and brilliant affair ever given at Madison and all the colleges of the country have been invited to send special representatives.

President Northrop received a preliminary program of the order of ceremonies yesterday.

The celebration will last from the 5th to the 10th of June and the principal event will be the inauguration of President Van Hise, Wisconsin's new head. There will also be addresses by some of the best known college presidents in the United States, including President Northrop, banquets and receptions galore, the usual conferring of degrees, and other interesting and impressive ceremonies.

The Wisconsin Alumni of the Twin Cities intend to charter a special car and attend the jubilee in it, thus avoiding the experiences in store for those who will have to rely upon Madison's inadequate hotel accommodations.

MODEL OF UNIVERSITY.

The plaster of paris model of the University, which is to be a part of the Minneapolis exhibit at the World's Fair, is now completed and will be ready for shipment in a few days.

The remainder of the exhibit will be ready to send sometime next week, but as the Twin City building is not yet finished, it will have to remain here pending its completion.

Prof. McVey said yesterday that the building would probably not be ready for occupation till the middle of May, and that he expected to be able to install the exhibits about that time. This will necessitate his absence from the city for several days.

Contrary to expectations Dr. McVey will not remain at St. Louis during the summer, but will leave the exhibits in charge of a subordinate.

Gamma Phi Beta has pledged Mildred Hunter, of Tracy, Minnesota.

PLANS MADE FOR BIG MAY FESTIVAL

Play Will Be Given in the Afternoon and Chafing Dinner at 6:30

The plans for the May Festival were discussed and set in motion yesterday noon at a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. finance committee.

There has been much question about the time of day for the presentation in chapel of the farce 'One Night Only.'

The Dramatic Club did not wish to give the play in the afternoon, because the chapel is so hard to darken, and because no people from over town and very few students would probably come.

The Y. W. C. A., on the other hand, thought that the Festival, unless given in the evening, would lose half its charm.

It has been finally decided to follow the program of last year and give the play at four o'clock.

A chafing dish dinner will be served on the campus at 6:30 p. m.

During the evening the band and the glee club will perform.

The sororities and literary societies will each have separate booths where they will welcome their friends and serve candy and light refreshments.

GIRLS PRACTICING HARD.

Getting Ready for Big Tennis Tournament in May.

At all off hours, noon time, and every other opportunity, the girls are busy on the tennis courts.

Some very strenuous practices are being held and in spite of the rather warm weather, tennis enthusiasm is at a higher pitch than ever before.

The girls of the club are not the only ones interested, for at every practice there is a large audience.

The most promising candidates for the tournament are Miss Johnston and Miss Cox, who have often distinguished themselves on the basketball field.

The tournament between the Varsity and Central High School, on the 19, 20, 21 of May is to be the climax of the season.

LAST DEBATE TONIGHT.

Finals in Inter-Society Contests for the Jacobs Cup.

The Inter-Society debating contest for the Jacob's Cup tonight will also decide the championship, which now lies between the Forum and Shakopean societies.

The question to be debated is, "Resolved that the scab is not justified in taking the place of a striking union man."

The Forums, represented by Christianson, Robinson and Houck, will support the affirmative, and the Shakopeans, represented by Bernard and Robinson, will uphold the negative of the proposition.

KENNICOTT HERE

Jay Kennicott, '03, formerly attorney and counselor for the Daily, was about the campus yesterday.

GRIDIRON STARS ARE COMING BACK

Burdick and Thorpe Will Be Seen in the Varsity Line-up Next Fall

The student body will be glad to hear that the return of the two football stars, Burdick and "Sunny" Thorpe, is now almost assured.

Thorpe's return is certain, and according to the present outlook Burdick will also don a moleskin next fall, if some unexpected circumstances do not arise.

When the season was over last fall it seemed that all of Minnesota's famous forwards on the football team would not return for another year, and that the team of '04 would have to be made up of entirely new men.

The present outlook, however, greatly increases the prospects of another champion eleven, to battle for the maroon and gold.

As Schaech was the only member of the team who had played out his four years, it is hoped that a few more of the Minnesota champion eleven of '03 will see their way clear to play the game another year.

BAND TO ST. LOUIS.

University Musicians Are Making Preparations for Trip.

The band is making active preparations to raise money with which to make its trip to St. Louis.

While there, as has already been stated, the band will enter the college band contest.

Several methods have been proposed for securing the required coin of the realm. The one which seems to meet with the most favor being the giving of concerts along the route.

The prizes offered for the band contests are $5,000 and the boys feel hopeful that they can secure a good sized lump of it, which will help them materially.

UNIVERSITY AUTHORS.

Library Collection of Published Writings of University People.

A collection of all the published writings of faculty, students and alumni will be an interesting addition to the University reference library. Miss Ina Firkins, assistant librarian, is now making such a collection and is preparing a card catalogue. An interesting feature is a Fourth-of-July oration delivered by President Northrop in 1865. Members of the faculty who have a large list of publications are Professors McMillan and Leavenworth and Dr. Klaeber. The collection may be published at some time in the future. Meanwhile it will be bound and kept in the reference library.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.

There are 125 delinquents on our books. Bills will be placed in their P. O. boxes today, and prompt payment will greatly favor the management. To many this obligation is no more than a duty to pay a just debt. To many others these bills are bars to graduation. All are requested to pay promptly.

VARSITY NO MATCH FOR NEBRASKA

Cornhusker Ball Team Play All Around Home Team; Win by Score of 10 to 1

The Cornhuskers defeated the Varsity yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 1.

The men from Nebraska put up a fast clean game throughout and deserved their victory without a doubt.

The showing made by the home team was considerable of a disappointment. From the very first their fielding was ragged and their hitting poor.

Nebraska's scoring was confined to the first five innings, and was due to Brigham's lack of ability, as well as to wretched support. After Bond got warmed up it was one, two three, and the visitors seemed absolutely unable to solve his twists.

Nebraska started early landing on Brigham hard and often and the Gophers seemed inclined to help them along as much as possible by poor fielding and wild throwing. Varco was the worst offender in this respect, with Rogers a close second.

The Varsity showed themselves unusually weak with the stick, netting only three hits.

What would have been the result had Bond pitched the whole game is hard to say. Unquestionably a much closer game would have resulted.

Berg's catch in left field, Bond's pitching, Bender's three bagger and the fielding of the whole Nebraska team were the features of the game. Following is the score.

THE Y. M. C. A.

Why has not the University Young Men's Christian Association created a deeper impression and exerted a more lasting influence upon college life?

During the five years the writer has been in college he has watched the development and progress of the Y. M. C. A. along many lines, but he has never seen it enlarge its sphere of influence, he has never seen it become a prominent factor in shaping college affairs, nor has he ever known it to be even given a serious consideration by the great majority of the student body.

This is not because the association has not wished to extend and broaden its sphere of activity. It is not because the association has preferred to make its organization essentially religious, thus alienating from itself the great majority of those whose inclinations are not along that line.

The Daily believes that the Y. M. C. A. has tried to make itself a leading factor in college activities and it also believes that, in a measure, it has failed in the attempt.

The reason for this condition of affairs can be found in the organization itself. It is not broad enough. Its methods and its work are not made to appeal sufficiently to the men it should help and influence.

The average man who comes to the University is not a sinner and he does not like to be regarded as one if he does not evince an immediate interest in the affairs of the Y. M. C. A. He has well developed religious interests his ideas are fully matured and efforts made to draw him into a strict religious organization usually prove fruitless.

It is a well known fact that the work of the Y. M. C. A. is even held in contempt by many of the students, not because they do not respect its object and its purpose, not because they are not of a religious nature, but because the association seems to have confined its labors to a too narrow sphere.

The Daily believes that the Y. M. C. A. should broaden out. That it should try to take more interest and exert a more powerful influence in the more vital affairs and interests of college life.

We believe that it would be of a more practical benefit to the college man in after life if the Y. M. C. A. would make a plea for clean politics, rather than to try to get a crowd out to a prayer meeting; if it would do its best to suppress college graft, instead of paying so much attention to addresses on purely religious subjects, and if it would make an effort to establish a code of honor at the University rather than to spend its time giving Bible instruction to men who would study the Bible anyway.

The Daily does not mean that prayer meetings, addresses and Bible lessons are not essential, but it does believe that the Y. M. C. A. could exert a greater power for good at the University if it took more interest in some of the aforementioned things.

The Y. W. C. A. has given an excellent example of what a broader and more liberal organization can accomplish.

The Daily has noticed with pleasure the recent effort on the part of the Young Men's Association to broaden out its work, but we believe that more effort should be exerted along this line.

The Y. M. C. A. could, if it was made liberal enough, have as its members 90 per cent of the student body. It could exert an all powerful influence for good. It could expose corruption, graft, and the other greater evils in our life.

The Daily believes that these things are, as a general rule, more important than the problems of church doctrine or of religious belief or unbelief. It believes that the Y. M. C. A. would not only become a more useful institution for the students and itself if it broadened its scope, but it believes that by so doing it can become the most powerful factor in college life.

COLLEGE CHOIR.

Brown University students believe in the value of the college choir, and when it was proposed to do away with this feature of the chapel exercises, the undergraduates immediately took the matter up. They declare that chapel attendance is compulsory and therefore should be made attractive, that it is dull enough anyway, and that to leave out the choir singing would make the weekly religious exercises yet more dull; and that the choir lends an element of dignity and beauty to the chapel exercises such as no other one feature could do. They say the new organ, which has just been installed at considerable expense, is not nearly so attractive as the choir.

FRATS AT AMES

The faculty of Iowa State College at Ames has recently withdrawn the regulation barring the organization of fraternities which has hitherto been in force. Hereafter locals will be permitted to affiliate with national organizations and preparations are already being made to organize several chapters in the near future.

The former objection of the college authorities to the existence of national fraternities in the institution is said to have been based on a false idea of the fraternity's influence on college life.

FOREIGNERS NOT WANTED.

Students of the University of Missouri have circulated a petition that foreigners be excluded from the men's dormitory. The petition followed the announcement that an Egyptian student at the university had prevailed upon several of his countrymen to enter the University next year.

 The pleasant weather of the last few days seems to be working havoc among the students.
 Yesterday a certain professor met his studious scholars as usual, called the roll and then left the room to get some books which he needed.
 The moment was one in a lifetime, and immediately half the male members of the class slid out through the window into the fresh air and sunshine.
 The professor returned to the room to find the state of affairs as he had not left them, and now several students are wondering what is going to happen.

CO-EDS IN UNIFORM
 By an action of the faculty the women of Clark university will hereafter be required to wear uniforms. A dark blue cotton skirt and white shirtwaist, and also in the summer, sailor hats, costing not more than fifty cents will be the uniform. This marks the first attempt of a university faculty to prescribe a certain costume for women on the campus.

PEDAGOGY IN SUMMER SCHOOL.
 One of the new features added to the Summer School program of this year is a course in rural and school work. It will be under the supervision of Mrs. Landsley. Instruction will be given in care of the schoolroom, school government, care of the register, school program, lessons to be studied and general school law. As many country school teachers are present during the summer session this course will, doubtless, have a large attendance.
 The regular teachers' training course will be continued as in the past year. In the advanced work courses in both the History and Philosophy of Education will be offered and both of these are full university courses for which credit is given. As the summer school is for teachers of all grades, Prof. James desires to make the work in education as practical as possible for all. He believes, however, that all teachers should, at some time, take the advanced courses in education to give them a broader and deeper foundation for their practical work.
