"YOU COME FOR SHOR" Students, faculty and staff are invited to a lecture on "Immigrant Bilingualism: The Swedish Language in Minnesota," at 8 p.m. Thursday (Feb. 26) in Bohannon Hall 90. The speaker will be Nils Hasselmo, vice president of administration and planning and professor of Scandinavian Studies at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. The lecture is free and open to the public and is being sponsored by UMD's English department and the Duluth-Superior Chapter of the American-Scandinavian Foundation. There will be a dinner open to the public with Hasselmo at 6 p.m. Thursday in the UMD Campus Club. Cost is $8.25 per person for a dinner of Swedish meatballs. Reservations may be made by writing to James Holmer, treasurer, American-Scandinavian Foundation, 828 Claymore, Duluth, Minn., 55803. Checks should be made out to the American-Scandinavian Foundation and reservations must be received on or before Tuesday (Feb. 24).

BALLET The Duluth Civic Ballet will perform at 8 p.m. on Friday (Feb. 20), at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Saturday (Feb. 21) and at 2 p.m. Sunday (Feb. 22) in the Marshall Performing Arts Center at UMD. Tickets are available from the Marshall Center Box Office, 726-8561.

FEAST OF NATIONS Foreign students from more than 30 countries attending the three Twin Ports colleges invite you to attend this year's Feast of Nations Sunday, March 15, at UMD. The theme this year is "Beautiful World, Beautiful People" and will include displays of exhibits by students and a program in addition to the dinner. The exhibit may be seen from 12:30 to 4 p.m. in the Kirby Student Center and the program will be performed from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. There are two serving times for the dinner, at 12:30 p.m. or 4 p.m. The exhibits and program are free and the dinner cost is $7. For tickets, call the Kirby Student Center Ticket Office, 726-7170.

FACULTY RECITAL Ann Anderson and Raymond Comstock will present a joint violin faculty recital at 3 p.m. Sunday (Feb. 22) in Bohannon Hall 90. The recital is free and open to the public.

SUNDAY EVENING WITH A PROFESSOR This highly successful series continues Sunday (Feb. 22) with Robert F. Pierce, professor of communicative disorders, who will speak on "Communication Lines are Down." The dinner and lecture will be at 5 p.m. in the Campus Club. For information, call the Provost's Office, 7505.
