Regal's Rundown with Cheyanne Bell: Brittany Looker

In the sixth installment of Regal's Rundown, UMC student correspondent Cheyanne Bell sits down with Golden Eagle volleyball player Brittany Looker. The two discuss Looker recently breaking the school record for kills in a career. In addition, Bell and Looker talk about what she worked on to improve during the off-season, as well as the start she has had to the season. They also talk about what she thought the best match of the season was and what the team's goals are this weekend at home against Winona State University and Upper Iowa University

"Regal's Rundown" is a weekly show that will profile UMC athletics by talking to UMC coaches, staff and athletes about the happenings of Golden Eagle athletics. The show is in the second season, as Bell took over hosting duties from Josh Brehmer, who graduated last May.
