Freshmen, who did not take the psychological test last quarter, are requested to take same Friday, April 8, at 8:30 a.m. in Room 214, Millard Hall.

Sophomores who missed the test, please take it on Saturday, April 9, at 11:00 a.m., in Room 214, Millard Hall.

E. P. Lyon, Dean

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Faculty Meeting—There will be a meeting of the College of Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics, Monday, April 11, at 4:00 p.m., Room 1, Plant Pathology building.

Advanced General Horticulture, Hort. 91, will meet in Horticultural Library, Room 106, third hour, Wednesday.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

Women students who had swimming lockers the winter quarter and who are not registered for swimming this quarter should turn in their keys at once. Failure to do so will necessitate emptying the lockers and a charge made against the student. Those who are continuing work in swimming should have their lockers renewed at once.

UNIVERSITY CONCERT COURSE, 1921-1922

The University Concert Course for 1921-1922 will present the following artists:

Sergei Rachmaninoff
Josef Hoffman
Eugene Ysaye

Efrem Zimbalist
May Peterson
George Meder

It was announced at the last concert this season that the entire house is now open to new reservations. Some who hold desirable seats have complained of this ruling. Very careful consideration has been given all phases of the situation, and, although this way is much more difficult for the management, it is the only fair solution for all concerned.

Until there is a different auditorium on the campus, there will have to be some sacrifice all around in order to maintain this big undertaking. All who desire good seats should be in line during the first days of the sale.

Sale of tickets opens Tuesday, April 12, at 9:30 a.m. in the Library building on the Main Campus.

Course tickets $5 and $3.
