Horticulture Workshops take Flight in January

By Cassandra Morthera on Thursday, December 13, 2018

Starting on January 8, 2019, the Horticulture department from the University of Minnesota Crookston will be hosting a series of workshops starting with "The Basics of Winter Bird Feeding." These workshops will take place in the East Grand Forks Library from 6 – 7 p.m. The workshops are free. However, seating is limited, so arrive early to ensure a place.

During the first workshop, focused on bird feeding, attendees will have the opportunity to make and take their own bird feeders. Every following Tuesday in January will focus on a different topic. The session on Tuesday, January 15, 2019, will focus on "Garden Design 101. The topic for Tuesday, January 22, will be "Tablescaping," and finally Tuesday, January 29 will feature "Vegetable Garden Planning & Starting Seeds."
