BIBLE LECTURE

The third of the Y.M.C.A. lectures on the Bible will be given by Dean William R. Vance of the Law School tomorrow at 4:30 p.m. His subject will be "Prophecy in the Bible."

NOTICE TO DEPARTMENTS

By special request, the January salary checks will be issued to the departments on Saturday, January 31. The fact that February first is Sunday, and that the Christmas checks were issued early in December, enabled us to have the checks for this month released early, but this does not establish a precedent for issuing checks before the first of the month when the first occurs on Sunday. CHECKS WILL BE READY AT NINE A.M.

G. H. HAYES, Comptroller

SCHOOL OF CHEMISTRY

The Executive Faculty of the School of Chemistry has ruled that any student who chooses an elective course will be required to complete that elective in a satisfactory manner. In case a failure is received, the elective must be repeated when the course is next offered.

The Faculty also voted that a student who is not passing in at least fifty per cent of his work at the end of a quarter will be put on probation at the end of the quarter and may be dropped at any time.

LAUDER W. JONES, Dean

VOLUNTEER NURSES' AIDS

WANTED AT THE UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICE

The staff of nurses at the Health Service has been greatly depleted owing to illness. The services of four women as assistants to nurses would contribute much to the comfort of student patients at the hospital. Every effort has been made to secure additional nurses but none are available. Volunteers will kindly call the University Health Service, Dinsmore 2760-168.

DR. JOHN SUNDWALL

ALL FORMER ARMY AND NAVY hospital men are urgently requested to report to the University Health Service at once.
