COLLEGE OF EDUCATION MAY REORGANIZE UMD's College of Education will have up to two years to implement program changes under a priority document presented last Friday to the University Board of Regents at the board's monthly meeting, held in May in Morris. Central administration told the regents that the college needs additional time to consider curricular and organizational changes which would increase its role "...in serving the emerging human services and technical programs being demanded by society." The regents also heard a proposal which would increase tuition for the 1982-83 academic year by an average of 21.7 percent under a new plan which charges tuition on a per-credit basis.

PROMOTING CHILDREN'S HEALTH A workshop on promoting children's health and well-being will be offered at UMD from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday (May 22). Sponsored by Continuing Education and Extension (CEE), the workshop is designed for teachers, other school personnel, professional and community people in health and human services, students, and anyone else who wishes to explore the current issues and controversies dealing with health promotion for the younger population. For information, call CEE, 8113.

BUSINESS WRITING TO BE TOPIC OF SEMINAR "Facing New Writing Responsibilities" is the subject of an upcoming seminar Tuesday (May 25) being sponsored by the Center for Professional Development and being held in the School of Business and Economics. The seminar aims to help participants keep pace with the writing demands of their jobs, looking at the writing process itself, and such tools as the business letter and writing good news and bad news letters. For information, call CPD, 726-7298.

RETIREMENT REPAYMENT Under a new law passed this session by the state legislature, certain current and former UMD employees may be permitted to repay any refunds taken from the State of Minnesota Teachers Retirement Association or from any other Minnesota public retirement fund except the police and fire retirement funds in the state. Repayments shall be made in a lump sum in an amount equal to the amount originally refunded plus interest compounded at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date the refund was taken to the date of repayment. Deadline for repaying refunds is June 30, 1983. For information, call Ward Wells, 724-0492 or contact the Minnesota State Teachers Retirement Association, 1-800-652-9747; ask for the association specifically (612-296-8235).
