PRELIMINARIES NEAR CLOSE

Tennis preliminaries in the Singles are nearly all run off. In the doubles however, there are several games still to be played. The scores in the tournament thus far are all posted in the bulletin board in the library. The Courts are in use every minute of the day and there are always several waiting on the side lines to get a chance to use them.

This speaks well for tennis enthusiasm but it plainly shows the necessity for more courts. Two of the new courts on Northrop field will be ready for use tomorrow, and this will undoubtedly relieve the congestion, but still more are needed.

The Tournament will be over by the middle of next week. Exciting games will be played up to that time.

GOPHERS ARE BEATEN BY NEBRASKA'S BALL TEAM

Cornhuskers Connect With Brown's Twisters in Last Inning and Win by a Nose.

Minnesota suffered defeat yesterday afternoon at the hands of Nebraska in a heart-rending game by a score of 8 to 7.

Everything looked rosy for Minnesota up to the ninth inning, when three hits and a base on balls gave Nebraska three runs and the game.

In the first inning Minnesota made two runs and followed up the good work by adding three more in the second, when Dretchko drew a clean home run with three men on bases.

In the third with the score 5 to 0, Nebraska went in and scored three runs.

Minnesota added two more in the sixth with a base on balls, a scratch hit and a pretty two-bagger by Capron. In the eighth the fireworks began, the Cornhuskers sending two more over the pan. Two more were added in the ninth. Minnesota was unable to score in the ninth and everything was over but the shouting (by Nebraska).

COLLEGE MUSICAL TALENT IN A NOVEL ORGANIZATION

University Musical Clubs Are Consolidated by New Plan Urged by Professor Scott.

Another college organization has come into existence. This time it is a consolidation of all the musical clubs and interests at the University and will include the Glee and Mandolin Clubs, the Euterpean Club the University Orchestra and any others who have musical talent.

At the party given by the Pinafore cast at Glen Morris Inn on Wednesday evening Miss Francis Chamberlain strongly urged the plan, stating the needs for it and the benefits to be derived from such an organization. Professor Carlyle Scott who has charge of the music here stated that he thought the time was now ripe for a society of this kind and that he considered the university very rich in musical talent. Prof. Schlenker also urged the plan saying that it would undoubtedly pave the way for a department and later for a School of Music.

The following officers were elected: President, William Norton; vice-president, Augustus Milner; Secretary, Louise Leavenworth; Treasurer, Lulu Crozier.

The organization is greatly to be commended and will undoubtedly do much toward improving and furthering the cause of music at Minnesota.

ROSE AS MINE HOST

Band Director Gives Feed for His Proteges and Is Presented With Token.

Director B. A. Rose gave the University Band a banquet at the East Side Commercial Club, last evening. After the feast the chairs were pushed back and a number of toasts were responded to by the noise-makers.

The members of the band presented their host with a handsome loving cup at the close of the evening, which passed very pleasantly for all present.

NO MORE "THEMOPHORIA."

Greek Play Will Not Be Staged a Second Time--Fifty Dollars Cleared Over Expenses.

"Themophoria" will not be given again, was the decision reached at a joint meeting of all the literary societies yesterday. After the expenses had been paid, $50 were cleared. This money will be spent in buying something for the literary society room in Shevlin Hall.

DOWNEY WILL SPEAK.

Dean Downey will repeat at the Hennepin Avenue Methodist church next Sunday morning at 10:30 the address which he recently gave before the Men's Club of the First Congregational church.

CAP AND GOWN WILL GIVE PROM CONTRARY TO RUMOR

Annual Senior Function Will Be Held at Masonic Temple on June 11.

Rumors to the effect that there would be no senior prom were run to the ground at the meeting of the senior class held yesterday, and they are found to be without foundation. Every member of the class was enthusiastically in favor of the party and no objection was voiced when the motion was made. Chairman Griggs showed that the deficit, if any ensued, would be a very small one.

General arrangements for the "prom" are now complete and need only to be worked out in detail. All the committees have been appointed and are now at work. Nearly every senior has signified his intention of going, and there will undoubtedly be a large attendance on the evening of June 11.

The party, as announced, will be held in the Masonic Temple, which has the best dancing floor in the Twin Cities. The programs have already been ordered from an eastern firm and will be very neat creations.

June 7, the date of the senior class play, was set as the opening day of commencement week at a meeting of the class yesterday afternoon in Dr. Burton's room.

An excursion down the river has been planned for June 8. The class will leave here in a body and take the boat at Minnehaha. A reception for the class president will take place in the evening.

June 10 is class day. Following is the program:

9 A. M.--Gown procession around campus and buildings. As the seniors pass each building they will be received by the professors. Folwell Hall will be visited and several speeches will be delivered here. The farewell addresses will be given in

KLEPTOMANIAC IS ABROAD

Needles, Thimbles, Music, Blankets and Other Articles Disappear in a Mysterious Fashion.

Articles, useful and ornamental, are disappearing daily from Alice Shevlin Hall, and no man knoweth the way of their taking off. Among the things which have so far been missed are needles of every size and description, three silver thimbles, a blanket from the rest room, three sheets of music, several pairs of gloves and a fur scarf.

The list is growing more formidable every day, and as its length increases so does the face of Mrs. Ladd, the matron, who is a good deal dismayed at the turn which affairs have taken. She is at a loss to account for the disappearance of the lost articles, but says it can scarcely be attributed to carelessness.

UPLIFTING THE DRAMA.

At a recent banquet of Michigan alumni a veteran Chicago dramatic critic offered some rather sharp criticisms of student stage productions, stigmatizing in particular the lightness and frivolity which frequently characterize them. The speaker suggested that dramatic talent in the colleges would appear to better advantage in the production of the classics of the stage than in flimsy vehicles of student manufacture.

It was pointed out that the reproduction of the highest and best in dramatic literature by college men and women would do more than anything else to elevate popular taste in these matters. Pecuniary considerations are an insuperable barrier on the professional stage, but both because of their independence in this respect and their relation as educators to the community at large, the colleges are eminently fitted to guide the public taste in the drama.

In the face of such an opportunity, student plays are too often empty, plotless concoctions fashioned after musical comedy models—an inextricably tangled combination of vapid silliness and fatuous inanities, strung together with a very thin semblance of unity. On the other hand, the taste of Minnesota students is sufficiently defended by the success of the several serious plays which have been staged here this year, and it seems to us that we offer a very good field for the proposed experiment. We see our opportunity. Let's grasp it.

ALUMNI WILL DISCUSS.

Board of Directors Will Consider Regents' Action at Meeting Tuesday Evening.

Next Tuesday Evening the Board of Directors of the General Alumni Association will meet to discuss questions of interest to the alumni and the recent action of the board of regents in disposing of the state appropriations will be one of the chief topics of consideration.

Secretary E. B. Johnson hopes to increase the life membership in the Alumni Association to one thousand by June 1. Since last April, when Mr. Johnson was elected general secretary of the association, six hundred and twenty alumni have paid their fees for life membership. This makes the total life membership at present seven hundred and forty. This year's senior class will probably add a considerable number to the list.

the same time the medics of the class of 1912 flaunted in public their orange and green headgear, adorned by the skull and crossbones, emblem of their profession.

As soon as the first-year men made their appearance on the field there was trouble. The caps disappeared like magic before the well-planned attacks of the sophs and pandemonium reigned. Now and then a sophomore would break away with a cap, only to be overhauled and dispossessed by the freshmen. Caps appeared and disappeared in a most astonishing manner. Soon the freshmen were so completely shorn of caps and other wearing apparel that the battle seemed almost certain to come to a speedy end.

Then President Ramsland, with his followers formed a plan, a master stroke. Walter Radermacher, the doughty half-back of the last fall's freshman team, climbed a tree. The freshmen with backs to the oak defended it until the new hero displayed in all its glory a freshman cap. The sophomores made several futile attacks upon the freshmen and it looked as tho the flag pole episode was to be repeated with variations. But after many fruitless attempts to reach the cap and its owner the Soph succeeded in getting Jess Hawley to connect with one of the lower limbs.

In a twinkling Hawley had overcome Radermacher and had grasped the cap and caused the sudden descent of the erstwhile hero onto the heads of the cheering crowd.

By this stroke the Sophs had gained the upper hand and the disheartened freshmen were "up against it." Another of the sophomores, John Bierie, was soon safe in the branches of the tree and guarded Hawley from attack.

Later an '09 pennant was flung to the breeze from the limbs of the tree. The sophs passed up a bottle of kerosene and a box of matches and the cap was duly cremated.

WANT DETECTIVE STORIES FOR MINNESOTA MAGAZINE

Member of New Board Declares for Live Plot Interest Tales to Furnish Variety.

Correction must be made of the statement in yesterday's Daily, purporting to come from Wm. Davis of the new Magazine board, to the effect that under the new management no material would be solicited from the faculty for publication. A member of the new board makes the following statement:

"Nothing would be more unreasonable than for the board to take such an attitude toward faculty contributions, which we shall very actively solicit. Mr. Davis was misunderstood in his statement.

"The board, among other things, planned for new features to appear, beginning with the first issue of next year, intends to secure a new cover design, and a prize will probably be offered for the best submitted for this purpose.

"In the way of stories, we intend to print a line that will be alive and snappy and of general interest as well as artistic and technically good. The few college themes available for amateur use have been pretty well worked out and we are going to taboo the dead ones, so far as possible. We think that the college life and atmosphere should be reflected in its chief literary publication, but not so much as to become unpleasant.

"More people ought to write for the Magazine. There is a great deal of ability around college that no one hears from. We would like to get hold of stories with an almost exclusive plot interest—good detective stories, for example, if any one can write them, to give our issues color and variety. At present there is no one among our contributors who does this kind of thing. There is little doubt that there are a number of people around college who can do forefurl work of this character, and we ask right here, earnestly, that all who can, will. We urge every one to try, anyway. Let anybody that knows a good new plot work it up. There is all kinds of amusement and profit in the practise."

GOPHER OUT SOON.

Breezy Book of '08 Almost Ready For Sale.

The work of printing the '08 Gopher goes merrily on, and by the publication date, May 20, it is believed that all will be in readiness for springing it on the guileless and unsuspecting public.

As it stands completed, this year's Gopher is a fine type of the Minnesota Junior Annual, and while retaining many of the plans of former Gophers, it embodies many novel features hitherto untried. The sensational matter which aroused such a storm of protest from the reputed victims some time ago adds a spice of mystery to the other attractions of the book.

Subscriptions for the Gopher will be received by the management up to the end of this week.

INSPECTION POSTPONED.

Probably Monday of Next Week Will Witness the Great Pageant.

The annual inspection of the University cadet corps will not be held today, as announced in yesterday's Daily. The inspecting officer has not yet fixed the date, but it is probable that Monday of next week will be the day which will be finally appointed, according to Captain Sigerfoos, the commandant.

The program as previously published will be adhered to. Inasmuch as the manoeuvres will occupy all their time, cadets will be excused from all classes on inspection day.

Washington University Professor to Address Engineers' Society This Afternoon.

Prof. R. H. Fernald of the George Washington University at St. Louis, chief engineer of the United States Gas Producer Survey, will lecture before the engineers of the university this afternoon at four o'clock in the Physics lecture room, under the auspices of the Engineers Society. His subject will be "Development of Gas Producers." Prof. Fernald has made a specialty of gas producers. While still a student, and continuing original lines of research at St. Louis, he is recognized as one of the foremost authorities on gas manufacture.

WARM WEATHER LIVENS INTER-FRAT. BASEBALL.

Inter-frat baseball fans are watching with interest the last games of the preliminary schedule, and as the end of the season approaches the contest for supremacy in the separate divisions is growing keener. Unfavorable weather conditions prevented the playing of most of the games scheduled for last week, and the schedule committee requests the teams to play off these postponed matches some time this week.

Theta Delta Chi and Delta Tau Delta are fighting it out for first place in the first division, while Zeta Psi and Alpha Delta Phi head the second and third divisions respectively.

Next week's games will terminate the preliminary contests and the winners in the separate divisions will meet in the finals of the week of May 20.
