DULUTH--About 500 parents are expected to attend the 1962 UMD Parents Day Sunday(Sept.16), according to the student chairman Rene Carlson of Carlton.

Provost Raymond W. Darland and Student Association President Ralph Bufano will welcome the parents at a 2 p.m. assembly in Kirby Student Center ballroom. Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin, the four division chairmen, Student Personnel Director Chester W. Wood and Lt. Col. Harold J. Hopkins, professor of Air Science, also will be introduced.

Following the assembly, parents will move to a meeting room in the division in which their son or daughter intends to major. Parents of students undecided about their major field will remain in Kirby Student Center for a coffee hour.

Coffee hours and informal discussions will be held at each of the division meetings. The locations: Science and Mathematics--- Science 200; Education and Psychology---Education 20; Humanities--- Tweed Gallery; Social Sciences---Social Science 116.

Hallway and classroom exhibits are being arranged by the divisions. Parents also are urged to take their own leisurely tour of the entire campus.
