

Immediate release

UMD NEWS SERVICE
RA 4-8801 Ext 210
November 1, 1960

DULUTH--Dean William B. Lockhart of the University of Minnesota Law school will visit the UMD campus November 17 to talk to UMD and area students interested in considering law as a profession.

At a group meeting at 2 p.m. in room 224 Social Science building, Dean Lockhart will explain the variety of opportunities open to the young lawyers and will counsel students interested in the profession. From 3-4:30 p.m. in 205 Social Science, Dean Lockhart will be available for individual conferences.

Eight northeastern Minnesota students have been awarded scholarships by the University's Law school. Seven UMD graduates are enrolled in the first year class, four of them receiving scholarship assistance.

Applications for scholarships and copies of law scholarship information forms are available in the OSPS office and from Dr. Ellis N. Livingston, adviser to pre-law students.