DULUTH. . . Auctions, hootnany and shoeshines -- all in the name of World University Service -- will be conducted April 19-21 at UMD.

WUS provides economic and scholastic assistance to university students around the world, its dollars converting to food, lodging, health measures, tuition and books.

UMD's folksinging "Travelers" will kick off the campaign at noon Wednesday (April 19) under the auspices of Kirby Program Committee, Greek, religious, dorm and all-student associations.

A University Service film will follow in Kirby Ballroom and a Crazy Auction (anything from dates with coeds to valuable prizes) at 1 p.m. in Kirby Lounge.

Lost and found articles will go on sale between 10:30 and 12:30 p.m. Thursday (April 20) in Kirby. A concert-dance benefit is planned between 1 and 3 p.m. in the Ballroom .

Faculty and staff will be shining students' shoes during the noon hour on Friday (April 21.) That evening the regular Candlelight Cabaret will feature live music from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Frank Borelli, Duluth, Kirby president, is heading arrangements. Greek organizations are selling tags which will provide admission to all events.
