

Former Duluth Symphony orchestra conductor Joseph Wagner composed the feature selection, "Concerto Grosse," which this quartet will perform during the winter concert by the 70-piece UMD concert band at 8 p.m. today in Kirby Student center ballroom. From left are Donald Bergman, Duluth Denfeld, James Bursch, Virginia, Robert Baldrice, Chisholm, and Gerald Klun, Eveleth. Open to the public free of charge, the concert will feature Lucien Cailliet, brilliant American conductor, arranger and composer, who did the orchestration for "The Ten Commandments," as guest conductor. Maurice Allahan is the band director.
