Q-1

UMD freshmen and transfer students beginning studies during the winter quarter opening Jan. 6 will receive their introduction to the UMD campus Saturday with an orientation program sponsored by the UMD student commission.

Speakers will include Richard Miller, Duluth, student commission president; Gerald T. Bratt, Duluth, president, UMD Congress of Student Organizations; Robert J. Falk, assistant director, Office of Student Personnel Services, and Capt. Robert Almond, assistant professor of air science, Air Force ROTC.

After general orientation covering student activities, general education, and the Air Force ROTC program, four leaders will conduct group tours for the new students.

Commission officers directing the program are Miller, James Johnson, Gheen, commission vice president, and Rodney Van Deventer, Duluth, commissioner of orientation.
