

Immediate Release

UMD NEWS SERVICE
724-8801 Ex 210
May 24, 1967

Duluth--- Nine UMD officials will visit the headquarters of the Air University and of the Air Force ROTC at Maxwell Airbase, Alabama ~~Friday~~ Thursday through Saturday (May 25-27).

They will spend Friday being briefed on the mission of the Air University and its professional schools, the Academic Instructor School and Allied Officer School; and they will visit the Air University Library. They will be hosted Friday evening by Brig. Gen. Donald F. Blake, Air Force ROTC Commandant.

Attending from UMD will be Provost Raymond W. Darland; Lt. Col. Richard D. Kepner, UMD professor of aerospace studies; Dr. Harry C. Johnson, chairman, Division of Education and Psychology; Dr. Gerhard von Glahn, head of political science; Dr. Theron O. Odlaug, head of biology; John H. Ness, instructor in speech; Harvard W. Archerd, supervisor admissions and records; Julian B. Hoshal, University Relations Representative; and Charles H. Mannel, Placement coordinator.

Their host during the three-day trip will be Col. Robert H. Allyn, area commandant for AF ROTC.