

Release on receipt

UMD NEWS SERVICE
Rm 4-8801 Ext 210
November 28, 1960

DULUTH--"Gifts and goodies galore" will be featured at the UMD Home Economics club's bazaar 9 a.m. to noon, December 7 at Kirby Student Center.

Co-chairmen Corinne Anderson and Sandra Johnson, both of Duluth, say items on sale will include baked goods, knitted articles, wearing apparel and other novel gifts, all made by members of the club. The proceeds will be used to further club projects.

Chairmen of the bazaar committees are: off campus publicity, Elizabeth Agnew, Littlefork; on campus publicity, Margaret Olson, Tamarack, and Karen Leino, Embarrass; baked goods, Helen Harp, Cromwell, and Priscilla Coran, International Falls; decorations, Muriel Brink, Sturgeon Lake, and Sharon Lund, Floodwood; selling, Dorothy Timm, Grand Rapids, and Colleen Riley, Biwabik; set-up and dismantling, Louise Jameson, Duluth, and Mary Jo Anderson, Ironwood, Michigan.

Club president is Diane MacLean, Duluth; vice president is Muriel Brink, Sturgeon Lake; secretary is Karen Leino, Embarrass.