—Students Impressed—Great
Year Begins

"PREXY" IN CHAPEL

"This is no go-as-you-please institution. You must understand that there is a certain amount of work to be done."

"Fifty students were dropped at the end of the first semester last year because they did not keep up with their class."

"Five hundred public functions occur during the year. There is excitement all the time. Don't get connected with too many functions. I wish that these people who get up functions would leave them alone for a time."

"We are to be congratulated on our athletics. Football will be as genuine as ever. Its virility has not been eliminated. It will be of the kind that real ladies and gentlemen will like to see."

"The gambling habit is worse than the drink evil. The spirit of gambling eats into one's manhood. Don't try to get something for nothing."

"In ten years I believe the graduates of the university will control the state of Minnesota. We will then have one of the noblest states in the union, and it will be because of the character of its men."

These were some of the statements made by President Northrop in chapel Tuesday morning. It was the first chapel gathering of the year. The big room was crowded with students, while the faculty filled up the platform.

It was one of those memorable gatherings that happen only once a year. To the freshmen it proved most impressing.

President Northrop said that he was pleased to see so many of the students and faculty present, and hoped that they would continue to come during the year. He told the faculty that they might not only be an inspiration but also an example to the students.

Some of the usual directions for the year were given. That "no smoking" rule was rehearsed, students were advised to keep the library corridors clean and to make the best of the crowded conditions.

He said there was cause for congratulation in the fact that some of the departments had been made stronger during the year and pleaded for a general uplift in the whole university.

"We must make progress," he said. "The faculty must be a greater inspiration to the students. They should be leaders in their departments."

Miss Harriet Sewall, '06, is attending the Wisconsin Library school at Madison, Wis.

GIRLS HAVE MANY PLANS FOR TENNIS AND BASKETBALL

Tournament Will Come Earlier This Year—Seniors have few Players Left.

Plans for girls' basketball and tennis are already being made, and practice in both lines will begin earlier than usual.

This year the inter-class basketball tournament will be held before the more important of the Varsity games, probably come before January.

Class teams are therefore already getting in line. The freshman material has not been explored as yet, but various high school stars will probably be discovered. Among the sophomores are Caro Brown, Genevieve Wales, Elsa Ueland, and Pearl Smith; the Juniors have Helen Cummings, Grace Gathagan, Mary Shiely, May Newton and Lou Fleming; while, of the Senior team only Irene Dunn and Rose-Marie Schaller are left. However, there is more than the usual enthusiasm among Senior girls and a big number intend to turn out and try for the team.

Tennis will be more popular this fall than ever before because matters will be arranged so that all girls can play. Last spring there was some difficulty in getting good courts but this year Miss Butler of the Physical Culture department will have charge of tennis, and will see that the girls have the use of Northrop Field Court.

Genevieve Wales, '09, who won the University championship in singles and doubles, played in several tournaments during the summer, winning and defending her title to the championship of the state.

"Reps" Will Meet

There will be a meeting of the University Republican Club for the election of officers, next Wednesday, Sept. 26th.

By order of the President.

CADETS AGAIN

New Guns Have Arrived—They Are the Real Thing Now

The gray uniforms of the university cadet corps will soon be seen on the campus. The engineer soldiers met Tuesday for the first time and the academics and chemists will meet today at 4:00 p. m.

The new guns, which the Cadets have waited for so patiently, have arrived at last. They are Krags of the 1903 model. They are equipped with new knife bayonets and are equal in every respect to the guns used by the regular army.

FRESH-SOPH DEBATERS TO BE SELECTED SEPT. 27TH.

Peavey Prize of $75 Will Be Divided Between the Final Victors
—Other Prospects

September 27th, a week from Thursday, is the date set for the trials to choose the men to represent their classes in the freshman-sophomore debate. The question is the high school question of last fall, "Resolved that all elective state, district, county, and city officers should be nominated by direct primaries held under state regulations, rather than by delegate convention."

The Peavey prize of $75 will be divided among the winning team and as there is an abundance of good material for both teams an interesting contest is assured.

Debate work will receive an impetus this year thru the formation of the new league. All of the old debaters are a number of strong men who are eligible and in addition there will enter intercollegiate debate this year for the first time. Some of these are Deering, Colburn, Evans, and Doherty all of whom have done excellent work in interclass and society contests.

Of the old debaters, De Vaney Houck and Thompson have returned to college and their participation in the work promises a successful year for Minnesota.

The new league arrangements provide for two debates this year. Minnesota meets Illinois at Minnesota, and meets Iowa at Iowa. The question is, "Resolved, that the cities of the United States should seek the solution of their street railway problems thru private ownership."

In the contest with Illinois, Minnesota has the affirmative of this question. In the contest with Iowa the negative side will be taken by the home team.

Arrangements have been made not only for this year's debates but for the next three years. Next year, Minnesota meets Wisconsin at Nebraska. The ensuing year Minnesota meets Iowa here and Illinois at Illinois. The fourth year we meet Nebraska here and Wisconsin at Wisconsin.

There is some talk this year of admitting the sophomores to intercollegiate contest, but this question has not been definitely decided.

Yesterday afternoon for the first time this year Minnesota's football men appeared upon Northrop field.

About thirty men were out for practice which was light. Kicking and catching punts were the most strenuous efforts of the day.

The field is in excellent condition and with proper care in the next few weeks will at the time of the big games, justify its reputation of being one of the best gridirons in the west.

As yet there has been a noticeable dearth of old men. A comparatively small number only have donned the moleskins.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Williams expressed himself very strongly upon the necessity for all old men to join the squad. He said,

"It is incumbent upon every man who played football last year and is still in college and especially upon every man who won his 'M' last season to join the squad at once."

1906 SCHEDULE

Oct. 27—Ames, at Northrop Field.
November 3—Nebraska, at Northrop Field.
November 10—Chicago, Marshall Field, Chicago.
November 17—Carlisle, at Northrop Field.
November 24—Indiana, at Northrop Field.

"I also hope that all men who are eligible and have played the game and especially all members of last year's Freshman squad, whether they won their numerals or not, will come out at once."

"They are all needed. If every eligible man joins the squad, the prospects for a good team will be bright." Dr. Williams went on to say that he hoped the attitude of the student body would force all men who are hesitant about turning out—and that for a good reason—to present themselves this afternoon.

Manager Frank Reid will be at his office in the Armory from 2 to 4 p.m., this afternoon ready to fit out any man with a football suit.

"Who's smoking that lamp-wick?" Campaign cigars may be numerous, but please—oh please, keep them off the campus.

The laws are complaining that the the market for campus tickets is exceedingly dull for this time of the year. However, Fred Snyder who has the agency for reserved tickets at the coming football mass meetings reports a brisk trade.

That Chapel Talk.

You went to chapel yesterday morning, you listened to the man who is at the head of the University, and if you were a freshman, it was perhaps the first time you heard him speak. Noble, high, inspiring thoughts arose in your mind and you had a feeling that there was nothing in all the wide-wide world to prevent you from following out your inclinations.

But how long will those inclinations last. To-morrow, a week, perhaps a month and they will be gone. You will go to places you should not, fail to study when you know that it is imperative that you get your lessons, and, well, some more of the erring will be asked to leave college at the end of the semester.

Yet, there is no value to be put on such a talk as President Northrop gave in chapel yesterday. It is priceless. Once having heard him say those things it should be an inspiration even to catch a glimpse of him as he crosses the campus.

Who has followed the struggle for civic improvement in this city and then felt the part that our President is taking in it can understand the weight of his influence and the extent of his desires. It is not often that men talk in their political speeches of visions of a "city beautiful." It is something new that is coming into our life and it is lifting things up.

"Ten years from now the graduates of this university will control the state of Minnesota, and they will do it because of their high character. I believe it," said President Northrop.

Will you, each and everyone of you who sat in chapel yesterday, be one of them.

WORK ON MAGAZINE.

First Edition of the Year to Appear Soon—Many Features

Work is progressing rapidly on the issue of the magazine which will appear the first week in October.

The editors of the monthly have kept in touch with the literary producers of the campus during the summer and many good contributions have already been received. More are being turned in every day.

Prominent alumni have agreed to furnish special articles and fiction during the year and some interesting productions are being looked for.

The first meeting of the board will be held Thursday at 10 o'clock in the "Mag" room in the Chemistry building.

BEFORE THE FOOTLIGHTS.

Ward, an Alumnus, Is Coming With Louis James

Among the many Minnesota students who are making themselves prominent in the theatrical world is George Websterfield Ward, who will appear at the Metropolitan the latter part of this week in the "Merry Wives of Windsor," playing the part of Nym.

Mr. Ward will be remembered as a former student and one who was prominent in university theatricals. During the past year he has been in New York studying dramatic art. In one of the public performances of his class in practical demonstrations of dramatic development, his ability was brought to the notice of Louis James, who engaged him for his tour this season.

Mr. Ward's work is said to give considerable promise.

NO MAY 1, FOR DR. BURTON.

Will Stick To The Present Location. Many Lectures For Economic Students

Dr. Burton declares, that his classes shall not be moved around on an average of once a week as heretofore, but that he is in his present quarters to stay.

He will not be at Minnesota for the entire first semester. Before planning to come here at all, he was engaged to give a six weeks course at Chicago, and will take a month and a half before Christmas to fill this engagement. Work will be resumed after the holidays, and the subject will be fully covered in spite of the vacation. The doctor expressed himself as delighted (Continued on third page.)
