DULUTH--A 200-voice high school choral clinic, featuring a full day rehearsal and evening concert in the UMD Physical Education building, has been arranged for Friday, Feb. 2.

Composed of outstanding high school singers from northeastern Minnesota, the clinic will be directed by William Lynn and arranged by Assistant Professor Allen Downs of the UMD Music Department.

Lynn, chairman of the Department of Music at Kearney State Teachers College, Kearney, Neb., will conduct a 7:30 p.m. concert following rehearsals at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Duluth East, Duluth Morgan Park, Hermantown, Barnum, Ely, Sandstone, Moose Lake, Cromwell, Two Harbors, Cloquet, Silver Bay and Grand Marais high schools and Duluth's Ordean Junior High School will send singers to the clinic.

No admission will be charged for the evening concert.
