DULUTH—Gerhard Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schmidt, Clarissa, received the Arrowhead award at the fourth annual Recognition dinner this week on the Duluth campus, University of Minnesota.

It was one of 44 student, three staff and two student organization awards conferred for outstanding contribution to campus life.

Mr. Schmidt's recognition was based upon the following activities:

KUMD (UMD's radio station) traffic director.

UMD Broadcasting service.

Chronicle sports editor. (UMD yearbook)

Statesman sports editor. (UMD weekly newspaper)

Debate and forensics.

UMD Theater.

Humanist contributor.

The citation included: "Gerhard demonstrates both breadth and depth of participation in student life. Talk to anyone in any one of the activities cited and you will learn he has been far more than passive in his membership of participation."

Mr. Schmidt is a sophomore majoring in speech and minoring in English.
