ROOTER DELEGATION OFF FOR SCENE OF BATTLE

Minnesota Sends Her Loyal Cohorts To Assist Her Sons on the Battle Field.

Twelve hundred ardent and eager Minnesota rooters, accompanied by University band, left for Chicago last night over the Minneapolis & St. Louis and Wisconsin Central railroads.

The band went on a private car over the Minneapolis & St. Louis road. Attached to the same train was a car bearing a party of thirty-five University girls, loyal to the core. A large bunch of rooters also left on special trains over this road. The Wisconsin Central carried the Rooters' Club in a body, accompanied by more Maroon and Gold supporters.

At each station enthusiasm simply abounded. The band marched down Washington avenue followed by a howling mob of students, some of whom were going to "Chi" and some of whom were to stay at home, but they all were happy. And when the railroads pour their hordes of Minnesota people into Chicago, bearing miles of maroon and gold ribbon, and a never-dying source of loyalty, Chicago will realize that nothing can stand in the way of Minnesota, that Minnesota is first, last, and always.

GOPHER PICTURES HERE

Sample Pictures On Exhibition In Library—Album Committee Starts Campaign Today.

The sample Junior pictures will be on exhibition in the library poster case late this week. Lee Bros. were obliged to send east for the cover papers thus necessitating the delay. The Gopher board wants as many pictures taken in these nice days as possible as every day saved means just so much off the mind of the album editor.

The department editors are to commence within the next few days an active campaign among their classmates in order to get the pictures taken as soon as possible. Each of these members of the staff have been long at work with their note-books taking down funny breaks on the part of their profs and classmates, for future reference (next May).

The campaign for pictures of the human interest variety has resulted in some snaps that are sure to raise a scandal when in print. Wait till Mary, down home, sees a photo of her faithful Jack fussing some other butterfly; there is sure to be war down on the banks of the Wabash.

600 CHICAGO TICKETS SOLD.

Cashier Bren reports the sale of 600 student tickets for the Chicago game. Many more will probably be secured at the gate by Minnesota students, and the crowd will rival that of 1906, when nearly half the crowd wore Maroon and Gold.

Greatest Gridiron Battle In Years Comes Off Today

Western Championship in the Balance When Ancient Rivals Contend for Honors on the Football Field—Both Teams Confident of Victory.

Minnesota Rooters Give Chicago Supporters a Taste of Minnesota Enthusiasm—Weather Conditions More Favorable Than Hoped for.

* * * * * Probable line-up for this afternoon. * * * * *

The football championship of the west lies in the balance. This afternoon a titanic struggle will decide the fate of our warriors of the north. Down on Marshall Field they are preparing for the greatest football battle of the year, a battle from which the victor will emerge with the applause of the football world.

Both teams are in the pink of condition and both are determined to win. Practically equal in weight, they realize that upon speed, endurance and stratagem the outcome will depend. From the weather forecast and present conditions, it would seem that the field will be in good condition and the enemy will not again be able to claim that Minnesota won because of the condition of the ground.

We are confident of winning because we deserve to win. The team knows that we expect them to win and they will do all within their power to fulfill our hopes.

Our rooters arrived in Chicago this morning. Already the Chicagoans have gained some idea of our enthusiasm. Already they are quaking for fear of the outcome of the game that will make pages of gridiron history. The rooters are down there to cheer the team, on to victory and they are going to do it. We who have remained behind can only hope, but we are hoping mighty hard. "Hurrah for our team, for we are going to win."

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING

Formally Admit New Members Chosen by Committee—"Good Natured Man" for Next Play.

At a Dramatic Club meeting yesterday afternoon the students recommended by the trials committee were formally admitted to membership. Goldsmith's "A Good Natured Man" was decided upon as the play to be presented by the club early in December. Try-outs for the members of the club will be held next Thursday.

Whether the play will go on the road during the holiday is a question that will be allowed to rest with the cast.

CHOIR SINGS IN CHAPEL.

The chapel choir of fifty voices under the direction of Mrs. Kendall sang "Praise Ye the Father," by Gounod, yesterday morning, which was exceedingly well given considering the short training the choir has had. Mrs. Kendall rendered "Abide With Me," from her own arrangement, which was greatly enjoyed by those who attended chapel.

FRESHMEN ISSUE DEFY

1912 Men Prepare to Resent Rules Laid Down by Sophomores for Their Guidance.

The freshman class is to hold a meeting next week and take decided action in regard to the entirely unwarrantable decrees recently issued by the sophomores.

The first-year men are determined to make a decided stand and are not at all cowed by the terrible 1911 vigilance committee. On the contrary it would appear that the committee fear the righteous wrath of the freshmen from the extraordinary zeal with which they are endeavoring to keep their names from being known. This subterfuge, however, will be of no avail for many of them are already known and if any of them should attempt to molest a freshman in the exercise of his rights they may be certain that the retribution will be swift and sure.

Dart and Stella Lyford, of '10, entertained a group of college people last night at their home on Snelling avenue. Jack-o'-lanterns lighted the house and their guests danced and roasted chestnuts in the open fire.

GOPHERS AND MAROONS HOLD "PRE-MARSHALL" LOVE FEAST

Third Purity Banquet Between Chicago and Minnesota Is Again a Huge Success.

Chicago, Ill. Oct. 30, 1908.—(Special).—At fifteen long tables set in Hutchinson Hall last night the members of the Chicago and Minnesota University football teams, with students from both institutions, broke bread together at the third annual purity banquet.

The big room was decorated with the maroon and gold of the visitors and the maroon of Chicago. At two tables at the head of the hall were seated the two teams with their coaches and athletic directors. The rest of the tables were occupied by the students, mostly Chicago supporters, but here and there was a sprinkling of Minnesota rooters who indicated their presence by lusty Ski-U-Mahs, distinguishable more by the spirit with which they were given than by volume.

The lists of toasts embraced responses by Coaches "Harry" Williams and "Lonnie" Stagg, as they lovingly styled each other in their addresses. Neither would commit themselves as to the outcome of the game. Captains Orren E. Safford of Minnesota and Walter Steffens of

POLITICAL DEBATE MONDAY

Followers of Taft and Bryan Will Set forth the Merits of Their Respective Leaders.

The long-heralded word-tilt between the rival political organizations of the University will occur next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The Taft-Jacobson club will then debate the Bryan Republican club in chapel. The subject will be "National Issues and Candidates." This debate has an added interest because it comes the night before the general election.

Lambert Prigge, Law '09, one of the University intercollegiate debaters, will debate for the Bryan Republicans. Prigge has been stumping the state for the past five weeks in the interests of Mr. Bryan. The Bryan-Republican club is composed of University men who believe the Chicago convention did not act rightly.

The champion of the Taft-Jacobson club has not yet come out in the open. Soon after the challenge of the Bryan Republicans, Jack De Vaney, one of our old intercollegiate men, registered for post-graduate law. There may be connection between these facts and there may not, but the Taft-Jacobsons are looking wise.

The Taft-Jacobsons are Republicans who believe that the Chicago platform speaks the views of the party. A debate between these two factions and by such able men will be long remembered here.

WE STAY-AT-HOMES.

Some of us are poor. We regret the fact but it doesn't change matters. It isn't because we lack enthusiasm that we stay here and itch and ache to be in Chicago in one of those awful football mobs. It is the cold hard truth. We are short on cash.

Some of us have work to do. We prefer to go to Chicago, but our preference doesn't count. We don't lack enthusiasm, we don't lack loyalty, but we do lack the time, the time to go to Chicago where our fellow students, are battling for our University.

But there is something we can do.
We can hope and pray for the su-premaccy of the Maroon and Gold.
We can hope that its untarnished reputation will not be soiled; that its spirit of true sportsmanship will not be trampled underfoot whatever may happen. We can not only hope, but we can believe with an unshaken mind in everything that pertains to Minnesota. And when the team comes home on Monday morning!
Then comes our part. We can show our loyalty, our enthusiasm, by giving our warriors the greatest reception ever given a university football team. What matters whether they win or lose? Did we not believe in them, trust in them, as true sons of Minnesota before the game, and shall we turn our backs on them? Never!
Remember, that win or lose, Minnesota never quits!

Scandinavian Department Will Hear Famous Speaker.

Largely through the efforts of Professor Stromberg of the Scandinavian department, the students of the University will have an opportunity of hearing the world renowned Dr. Oscar Montelius, who is lecturing in this country. Dr. Montelius is curator of the Swedish National Museum. He has been lecturing for some time at the Lowell Institute in Boston, the most exclusive of its kind in America. He will deliver two lectures at the University and one down town on November 8 and 9.

THIRD PURITY BANQUET.

Chicago expressed a determination for themselves and for their teams to do or die. Manager of Athletics Reed and Professor James Paige of Minnesota also contributed short speeches.

The banquet closed with the students lead by the Chicago band filing out of the hall singing the famous song, "Go, Chicago, Go." A monster mass meeting by the Chicago students followed the banquet.

SINCLAIR HAS GONE!

Under cover of dark night, "Jack" Sinclair disappeared Thursday. Rumors say he went to North Dakota to stump for Bryan. He will return before daylight Monday morning.

1912 COEDS TO ORGANIZE.

In a talk to the freshmen girls, Dean Comstock suggested that they organize a social society corresponding to the senior "Cap and Gown."
The idea met with great favor, and a committee has already been appointed to look into the matter.

Altho the woman's league and the Y W C A do their best to alleviate the homesickness and loneliness among the new girls by giving large functions, and by giving them work on committees, these organizations do not afford the opportunity to become acquainted that this society, with its small, informal gatherings would. This organization would create a more democratic feeling among the freshmen girls, and would do much toward arousing college spirit and enthusiasm.

CO-EDS SPEND OVER $1,000.

Who would have thot from their usually "dead broke" condition that the co-eds could swell the receipts of the Cafeteria to over $1,000 a month. Yet such is the case. Mrs.
Ladd reports that the increase is not in the size of the lunches but in the number of girls.

Don't You Know "Fadclothes?"

- Really you ought to.
- They're unlike any other clothes.
- They're for young men from 50 years down
- Some of the styles are deucedly extreme. For the younger ones.
- Others are more moderate. For young men a little older.
- Yes, they're truly exclusive, original, unique, happy.
- They're catching on to a surprising extent.
- They are designed by artistic young fellows with nerve.
- Nerve to go ahead and use some new thought.
- Nobody else has "Fadclothes" in Minneapolis.
- We've a rattling good assortment at $15.
- A whole lot at $20.
- Some real gems at $25 and $30.
- Ask especially about the stagey patterns. They're rich.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE PARTY

Halloween Stunts to Hold the Boards
This Afternoon—Affair Distinctly Feminine.

The Woman's League gives its long-heralded Halloween party this afternoon in Shevlin Hall. Preparations have been carefully made bringing into play the ingenuity of a very ingenious committee. The entertainment for the afternoon consists of fortune-telling, seances and informal dancing. Cider and ginger cookies will be served.

An introduction committee of twenty-five girls will see that there are no wall-flowers.

CAP AND GOWN TO EAT

Senior Girls' Organization Will Hold Its First Spread in Shevlin on November 18.

The members of Cap and Gown will hold their first spread of the year in Shevlin Hall on November 18.

A membership fee of 25 cents is required this year, and it is necessary to be a paid up member before you can get a ticket to the spread. They will be on sale next week at twenty-five cents each.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

Betting in the Windy City on the Chicago-Minnesota football game is going on at the odds of 5 to 4 in favor of Chicago. Before today there were few takers, but when the Minnesota rooters reached the home of Stagg and Steffens there was little Chicago money uncovered. Some may have to borrow money to return with and some who went down in day coaches may come back in Pullmans, but what the — do we care.

GIRLS CAN'T KEEP QUIET.

Some girls are complaining that there is too much noise and too little room in the girls' study room. The place is overcrowded with gossips and those desiring to study are forced to hunt vacant recitation rooms both on account of lack of space and order. It would please many girls if those looking for sociability would vacate their chairs in favor of those desiring "to dig."

EUTERPEANS AT FARIBAULT.

The Euterpean Club will give a concert at Faribault about the 7th of December. Expenses are guaranteed and Miss Ells of St. Mary's Academy will see that entertainment in Faribault homes is provided for the club girls.

The club is also considering the possibility of giving a concert at Mankato in December.

Prof Rarig will speak on the "Social life on the farm" in the agricultural chapel next Tuesday.

GIRLS START BASKETBALL

Co-Eds Will Begin to Practice for Varsity Team—Many Veterans to-Try Out.

Girls' basketball practice will commence a week from Monday.

Among the old girls who will turn 3 Daily—to 30 BL out are Elsa Ueland, Ruth Erickson, Nellie Loberg, Marion Lawrence, Irene Marden, Marjorie Simmons and Grace Sanderson. A large bunch of freshman are expected and upper classmen who play the game are urged to try out for the team.

MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE TO REPRODUCE CHICAGO GAME

The Minneapolis Tribune extends a cordial invitation to the students who do not expect to attend the game at Chicago to watch the progress of the game as portrayed by their wonderful apparatus on the corner of Fourth street and Fourteenth avenue S. E., in front of W. H. Evans cigar store. Every feature of the game will be produced instantaneously by this wonderful device. An old U. of M. graduate of the sporting department of the Tribune will be on the field in Chicago and will report every detail of the game. Come and enjoy the Tribune's effort to give you a good time. The same telegraphic service will be given here as is recorded by the Tribune, who have a special wire to the grounds.

CATHOLICS MEET.

The University Catholic Association will hold its regular meeting Sunday at 4 o'clock p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. building. Father Bryan will continue his course of lectures.

Farrington Daniels and Lynn Wanless have been appointed as assistants in the qualitative chemical laboratory.

METROPOLITAN.
 "A Stubborn Cinderella," at the Metropolitan, is the cleanest and best musical comedy seen in Minneapolis this season. "The Lion and the Mouse," with Edna Archer Crawford, formerly leading lady with the Christine Hill Co. at the Lyceum, returns to the Met the first half of next week. Geo Cohan's musical play, "50 Miles from Boston," is on the boards the last half.

THE LYRIC.
 "The Hypocrites" continues at the Lyric over Sunday. Commencing Monday "The Three of Us," a delightful comedy drama, seen here last season at the Metropolitan, will be given by the stock company. The Lyric management is putting on the very highest class of plays and will continue to do so as long as the patronage merits it.

THE BIJOU.
