DULUTH--Nine students will graduate with honors in UMD summer commencement exercises at 8 p.m. Thursday(Aug.22) in the Physical Education building.

Sigurd J. Ode, respected Duluth educator leaving shortly for a new position in Washington, D.C., will address the 128 graduates on "The Threshold of Opportunity."

UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland will present the undergraduate degrees, Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin the Master of Arts degrees.

Lt. Col. Harold J. Hopkins, professor of air science, will conduct the swearing-in and awarding of reserve Air Force commissions to UMD ROTC graduates.

Regent William K. Montague, Duluth, will offer congratulations to the class in behalf of University President O. Meredith Wilson and the Board of Regents. Two other regents, Daniel C. Gainey of Owatonna and Otto A. Silha of Minneapolis, and former Regent Richard L. Griggs of Duluth also will participate in the exercises.

The Rev. C. J. Tellekson, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, will offer the invocation and the benediction.

A reception will be held in Kirby Student Center lounge following the commencement. Tweed Gallery also will be open.
