

For release on receipt

UMD News Service
Sept. 22, 1958

DULUTH--UMD pre-law students continuing their studies at Northwestern university, Evanston, have achieved outstanding recognition.

John E. Coons, a 1950 graduate of UMD and who attended Northwestern on a scholarship, is assistant dean of the Northwestern School of Law.

Richard Flint, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell D. Flint, 4315 Cooke, a 1957 graduate of UMD, entered the Northwestern school last fall under a scholarship.

Upon completing his first year with high distinction, he was invited to apply for membership on the board of editors of the Northwestern Law Review.

Two UMD graduates entering the Northwestern school this fall are John H. Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Andrew, 424 West Sixteenth street, and Donald A. Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carlson, 4127 West Eighth street.

Andrew is a 1954 graduate of Duluth Central, and Carlson is a 1954 graduate of Denfeld high school.

Pre-law adviser at UMD is Ellis N. Livingston, associate professor of history.