DULUTH--The program "A Visit to a Model Elementary School Library" is planned at 8 p.m. Wednesday (Nov. 15) in the UMD Laboratory School library, 22nd Ave. E. and Fifth St.

A tour of the library and display of new children's books are slated in observance of National Children's Book Week. Mrs. W.C. (Lorraine) Bissonett, Laboratory School librarian, will talk on the elementary school library.

The program is sponsored by the Duluth Public Library Association and UMD. Association president Mrs. Lewis Levang will preside. Rudolph Johnson is head librarian at UMD.
