By: Shawn D. Smith, Director of Athletic Communication

In the second episode of "Life After The Game", Kolby Castillo welcomes UMN Crookston business lecturer Courtney Bergman to walk student-athletes through how to make their resume and the different formats that can be used. It is important to know the skills of building a resume as student-athletes finish up their athletic careers and get closer to applying for jobs and embarking on a professional career.

"Life After The Game" is a passion project of Assistant Event Management and Intramural Coordinator Kolby Castillo. The series will help student-athletes with tips of what to do when they are done competing in the sport they love.
