Sunday's Minnesota Crookston Softball Doubleheader Against Wayne State Cancelled Due to Weather

CROOKSTON, Minn. – The University of Minnesota Crookston softball doubleheader against Wayne State College (Neb.) scheduled for Sun., April 23 at 1 and 3 p.m., has been cancelled due to frigid temperatures in the Red River Valley. The games will not be rescheduled.

Minnesota Crookston will return to action Wed., April 26 at St. Cloud State University at 1 and 3 p.m. The Golden Eagles have six games remaining in the 2017 season. Yesterday's doubleheader against Augustana will serve as the final home games for Minnesota Crookston unless one of the final three series remaining is moved to Crookston due to poor conditions at the site the games are scheduled to be played at.
