DULUTH--The 75 piece UMD concert band will appear at the Minnesota Music Educators' Association convention in Minneapolis Saturday (February 11).

Representing all college bands in the state, the UMD band will serve as a clinic unit during daytime sessions directed by Walter Beeler, professor of music and band conductor at Ithaca College, New York.

The UMD band will present a concert at the end of the convention led by James E. Murphy, UMD band conductor and assistant professor of music.

Men and women involved in band, chorus and orchestra activities in elementary and secondary schools, and colleges will attend the convention.
