VOL. I

OCTOBER 30, 1918

NO. 6

IMPORTANT

All members of the S. A. T. C.—Collegiate Section—including the Naval Section and the Marines, will meet in the Armory today, Wednesday, at 9:30 a.m. This gathering will replace the first class period for today. All men, whether they have classes or not, are expected to be present. Both the Commanding Officer and the President of the University will address the men. This meeting is called in accordance with an action of the Administrative Committee of the University Senate.

M. L. BURTON, President.

S. A. T. C. MEN: Attention is again called to the program of study rooms listed on the official poster of October 19th. Members of the S. A. T. C. are supposed to spend their vacant hours studying in the room assigned to their respective groups.

THE Y. W. C. A. WELCOMES YOU

Girls whose minds have been turned to serious thought, service, and worship, by the war, will be interested in the activities that the Y. W. C. A. has to offer on the campus this year. It is hoped that many will wish to take out membership and to cooperate with us in our new plans for work, play, and study. It is possible to bring the girls on the campus closer together by a unity of purpose. There are many things that you can do, with and for us. For membership, inquire at the Y. W. C. A. Office in Shevlin Hall, or of Wyllian Knapp, P.O. No. 26.

- I. Weekly devotional meetings—Fridays at 12:45. The first one will be addressed by President Burton, the date to be announced when the influenza ban has been lifted.
- II. Discussion groups.
 1. On Minnesota standards for freshmen.
 2. On topics relating to the war and its ethical and spiritual significance in your own lives.
 3. Reading groups in cooperative houses and in dormitories. (Beginning the second week in November. Inquire of Marion Andrews, P.O. No. 820.)
- III. Social service.
 1. Club leaders needed (in settlement houses and in the city Y. W. C. A. for:
 - (1) Scout troops. (2) Girls' reserves.
 - (3) Dramatic clubs. (4) Hiking clubs.
 2. Class leaders for:
 - (1) Social dancing. (2) Folk and aesthetic dancing.
 - (3) Bible study.
 3. Teachers of cooking and sewing at maternity hospital. (Inquire of Elsie Van Ness, P.O. No. 1000.)
- IV. War recreational service.

Note: Please bring clothes, bedding, shoes, etc., for the fire refugees, to the Y. W. C. A. Office at once. It is badly needed within the next few days.

DR. RICHARD BURTON of the Department of English will give a series of public lectures on literary topics in the Little Theater on Tuesday afternoons at 2:50.

The first lecture, on November 5th, will be on "The Beauty of the Bible." Subjects of the succeeding lectures will be:

- "The Theater, a Democratic Art."
- "Dickens and the Humanitarian Note."
- "The Revolution in Poetry."
- "Literature of the Great War."
- "A Knowledge of English as Patriotic Equipment."

These will be followed by a series of lectures on some Great Americans: Franklin, Grant, Lowell, Whitman, Mrs. Stowe, Mark Twain.

THE HOSTESS HOUSE will be open Saturday at 2:00 p.m. Any members of the S. A. T. C. whose mothers are coming to spend Sunday can receive information there about rooming houses near the campus. The committee will be glad to have visitors come directly to the Hostess House for any information and to make it their headquarters for meeting and visiting with the S. A. T. C. men.

ALL CIVILIAN MEN STUDENTS must take physical examinations at the University Health Service, 1521 University Ave S. E., today from 8:30 to 12:00, and from 1:30 to 5:00.

DR. JOHN SUNDWALL, Health Officer.

Beginning today, subscriptions to THE DAILY will be received. The rate is $2.50 a year for all civilian students, fifty cents less than last year. S. A. T. C. men only may subscribe for one quarter, at a cost of 85 cents. Those S. A. T. C. men who wish to subscribe for the full year may have the paper sent to their various addresses if transferred. In addition to the team captains announced yesterday, the following have been designated: Lillias Hannah, Kathryn Fischbein, Gertrude Hauser, Mildred Abbtmeyer, Jean Rounds, Leila Lewis, Rene Pino, Isabel Rising, Rhoda Kellogg, Gertrude Lester, Hazel Gleason, Grace Challman, Kathrine Cassily. Elizabeth Nissen has charge of the faculty team. The entire campaign is under the direction of Mildred Hogan and Jean Keller. Subscriptions will be taken the rest of the week, beginning today and continuing until Saturday night. Everyone is urged to cooperate in the publication of THE DAILY and to subscribe at once.

GRADUATE STUDENTS, ATTENTION! No registration for the first quarter 1918-19 will be allowed in the Graduate School after Friday, November 1st, except in special cases upon petition, with reduced credit and with penalty for late registration.

C. M. JACKSON, Acting Dean.

GRADUATE TEACHING FACULTY. The first meeting will be held on Thursday, October 31, 1918, at 7:30 p.m., in Room 104, Folwell Hall. A full attendance is requested.

C. M. JACKSON, Acting Dean.

THE UNIVERSITY FARM. Home Economics Junior Advisers will have a meeting at 12:10 today in the Y. W. C. A. room.

Notice is hereby given to students interested in ARGUMENTATION AND DEBATE that a new hour will be arranged for Rhetoric 45 in order to accommodate students who cannot now take the course because of a class conflict. Students desiring to take this course in oral argumentation will meet today at the close of the fourth period in Room 309, Folwell Hall, to arrange a new time for the class. If you cannot attend at that hour, send your class schedule to that room and a schedule will be arranged to suit you.

CHARLES F. LINDSLEY.

For the information of the members of the Faculty, there will be published hereafter each day the list of "authorized absences" provided by the Commanding Officer. It should be carefully observed that during the epidemic of influenza this list does not include those who are absent on account of illness.

M. L. BURTON, President.
