DULUTH. . . India's Nitish Laharry, president-elect of Rotary International, will speak before a UMD audience during his Duluth visit.

A public convocation for Laharry has been arranged for 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 19 in Kirby Ballroom.

Laharry is expected to speak on India and invite questions from the audience, according to student Russ Schoumaker, Duluth, UMD International Relations Club which is co-sponsoring the talk with the UMD Student Association.

Laharry is a judge advocate of the High Court in Calcutta.
He was managing director of Columbia Films in India until his retirement from the position in 1959.
