

FACULTY CALENDAR

October 11, 1948

Vol. III

No. ?

Tuesday, October 12

On Tuesday the University will be closed in observance of Columbus Day. No classes will meet, and all offices will be closed.

Wednesday, October 13

(Members of the faculty are requested to announce the following program in their Monday classes)

Mr. Virgil Thomson, music critic of the New York Herald-Tribune, will speak in the University auditorium on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Members of the UMD alumni will be special guests at this occasion. Mr. Thomson is one of the most distinguished music critics in America and is an accomplished platform speaker. Staff, student families, and the community are invited.

Application for Naval ROTC

Each year the Navy Department selects approximately 3,000 high school seniors and college freshman on the basis of competitive exams to enter the Naval ROTC at one of fifty-two American colleges for a four-year college course with a guaranteed income. Students may take this exam any time between now and November 1.

"One-Man" Art Show

During the month of October Miss Margaret St. George, head of the art department, will have on display in the Little Gallery of the North Shore Theatre a group of finger paintings. The paintings consist of fantastic landscape, aquarium, and flower pieces and modern abstractions and have been done in the last year. All paintings are originals and are for sale at the prices marked on each.

Reminder to Faculty - MEA and NEA Dues

Members of the faculty who wish to join the Minnesota and National Education Associations but who neglected to return their applications blanks before the deadline of September 30 may still do so by mailing their dues to the addresses given on the application blanks.

Man 8177 Univ. of Minn.
Creative Arts.
7-12-48
Role of Univ.