PUBLIC LECTURE

Dr. R. A. HIERONYMUS, Community Adviser of the University of Illinois, will speak at the Little Theater this afternoon at 4:30, on the subject, "Community Needs and Service."

Dr. Hieronymus is one of the special lecturers who will be at the University of Minnesota but one day. He is a lecturer of national reputation and is making a speaking tour of the West. He should be greeted with an overflow audience.

THE PRESIDENT of the University wishes to announce that Professor Carleton Brown, Ph.D., Chairman of the Department of English at this University, who is to be on a sabbatical furlough during the academic year 1919-20, has just been invited to deliver a course of lectures at Oxford University, England, in the spring of 1920. Professor Brown has chosen as the subject of his course of lectures, "English Poetic Tradition before Chaucer."

Y.W.C.A. VESPER SERVICE

Every student of the summer school is invited to hear Dr. A. E. Jenks speak at the Vesper Service tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 in Shevlin Hall. There will be the usual social hour with light refreshments served from 4 to 4:30, just preceding the meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all men and women students.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The Executive Committee of the College of Education will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Room 103, Education Building.
L. D. COFFMAN, Dean

NOTICE TO ALL INSTRUCTORS

REPORTS ON DELINQUENT STUDENTS.—Attention is called to the fact that reports on delinquent students, in all departments except Agriculture, are due in the office of the Registrar at 8:30 tomorrow morning (Wednesday, July 16). Cards on which to make reports have been mailed to each instructor.

E. B. PIERCE, Registrar

NOTICE TO FACULTY MEMBERS

A small pamphlet entitled "Some Misapprehensions Touching Life Insurance" has been issued by the Carnegie Foundation. Copies may be secured upon application at the President's Office.

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE SUMMER SESSION

The supply of bulletins for the present Session is exhausted and the office is in need of a large number of copies.

It will be greatly appreciated if students and faculties who have copies and have no further use for them will hand them in at the Registrar's office.
E. B. PIERCE, Registrar.

SOCIOLOGY STUDENTS—NOTICE

The first meeting of the class on Community Organization and Community Centers, to be given by Mr. John Collier, will be held today at 1:30 p.m., in Room 9, Folwell Hall.
