DULUTH--Dale W. Olsen, a political science instructor, will represent the Department of Political Science at the Minnesota Citizenship Clearing House fall workshop in Stillwater on Thursday, Friday and Saturday (Dec. 6, 7, 8).

The workshop will attempt to explain "The 1962 Minnesota Campaign--What Happened?" through speeches and discussion groups led by individuals intimate with state politics.

Robert Forsythe, state Republican chairman, and John Mooty, campaign manager for Gov. Elmer L. Andersen, will talk on "The Republican View" Thursday with Democratic Congressman-elect Donald Fraser taking a look at "The Fifth District Race" during Friday's session.

Other speakers will include: Sidney Goldish, Director of Research, Minneapolis Star-Tribune; Jerry Hursh, director, Social Issues Research, Inc.; Ronald Stinnett, DFL field representative; Connie Dillingham, vice chairman, Republican Legislative Search Committee; and Dave Krogseng, research director, Republican State Central Committee.
