DULUTH--Reactivation of a national honorary journalism fraternity on the UMD campus was announced today by newly-elected president Michael Dickey, Duluth.

The UMD group will be known as the Zenith Chapter, Pi Delta Epsilon.

Dickey, who resides at 413 S. 46th Ave. E., is a junior in business and economics and is affiliated with KUMD-FM radio on the campus.

Other officers are Duluthians Melanie Roginski, vice-president; Kenneth Maeckelbergh, secretary-treasurer; Marlene Ruth, historian; and David W. Gustafson, sergeant-at-arms.

Co-advisors are James E. Matteson, instructor and graphic arts supervisor; and Kenneth J. Moran, UMD photographer.

Maeckelbergh left this week as an official delegate to the national Pi Delta Epsilon biennial convention at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N. Y., Oct. 27-29.

A membership meeting of the local group has been planned for the near future.
