[In these minutes:

In light of the sparse attendance, those present elected not to take up the intellectual future topic, University-Corporate relationships. Instead, they first discussed the budget structure of the University and agreed to try drafting a statement that FCC might consider adopting. They then discussed health care and the work of the Health Benefits Advisory Committee. On the latter, Professor Morrison noted that quick consultation from FCC may be needed on May 21 or 22, inasmuch as the Regents may act later that week on health care.

The group disbanded at 2:40.
