

NEW STUNTS FOR THE BIG CIRCUS

Bryan Has Promised to be Present—There will be a Bunch of Excitement

Lincoln, Nebraska, Feb. 22, 1905.
 Mr. Harry E. Ruble, Minneapolis, Minn.
 Dear Sir:
 Your favor at hand. I do not know what hour I shall arrive in Minneapolis or at what hour I must leave, but I shall be glad to attend the Circus if possible.
 Very truly yours,
 W. J. Bryan.

Preparations for the circus are going on with a rush. Several new features have just come to light which will surely be given.

Bicycle Act.
 A new bicycle act is announced in which the performers will ride across a wire thirty feet above the floor. Two professional Japanese athletes have been engaged to give a scientific exhibition of "Jiu-Jitsu" and Professor Penwell is busily engaged in preparing a Roman broadsword melee in which four University men will take part.

Russo-Japanese Skirmish.
 A feature absolutely new is a Russo-Japanese skirmish in which a squad of Japanese will attack a Russian outpost and capture it after an exciting struggle.

Another hair-raising episode will be the attack by Indians upon the lonely settler's cabin, the massacre and scalping of the whites and the subsequent rout of the Indians by United States Cavalry. This will be especially interesting because Luce's Company from over town will take part as the Cavalry.

LAST GAME TO BE PLAYED WITH CHI.

Reed Says No More Games will be Arranged for This Season

The Basketball team will close the season by playing Chicago at the Armory, Saturday, March 4.

The game which was played with Chicago on the trip was won by the latter team. Our boys arrived in Chicago at 2 o'clock in the afternoon from Purdue and had to commence playing at 3. After the long rest which they will have had, they expect to turn the tables on Chicago and defeat them with a good score.

There is some talk of getting another game with Nebraska, but such a thing is unlikely. Manager Reed has received a couple of telegrams from Wisconsin in respect to a game with them, but he will take no steps to make arrangements for a game this season.

SINGLE TAX.

The University Liberal Association has arranged for an address by Rev. Mr. Bigelow of Cincinnati, on the subject of "Single Tax," for March 4th. Mr. Bigelow is the official orator sent out thru this section of the country each year by the National Single Tax Society.

SPEAKER IN CHAPEL.

Oliver W. Stewart Will be Here on Monday Morning.

Mr. Oliver W. Stewart will speak in Chapel Monday morning. Mr. Stewart was for five years chairman of the National Prohibition Committee, and was elected to the Illinois legislature from the Hyde Park district in Chicago on the Prohibition ticket, and challenged the attention of friend and foe by his brilliant legislative record. He has spoken in every large city East or West and thru much of the South. As an orator he ranks with the greatest.

DAILY STAFF—NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the Daily Staff at the end of the fourth hour Saturday, in the Daily office. All members of the staff and all trying for the position of reporter must be present.

BIG SALE TODAY OF CO-ED CANDY

Watch for the Girls, who Will Settle Your Troubles with the Sweets

The blighting touch of the Trust has at last reached the University and the fair co-ed herself is to be its agent. It has been found necessary to run even so small an undertaking as the Y. W. C. A. candy sale on a strictly up-to-date and business basis.

JUDGING THE PAST.

In the past there has been considerable damage of riot immediately following and during these popular candy auctions. For instance a girl can hardly be blamed for having those of murder in her heart when she patriotically steps up and buys ten cents worth of fudge and sees the next purchaser most probably a prepossessing youth, invest the same sum what a difference in the size of the purchase.

HOW MUCH THEY GET.

The gentleman actually needs a flour sack (to contain his superabundance of sweets while the girl finds room for her noon lunch in the same bag with her fudge.

Shades of differences are even observed in the treatment of the men. After the last sale just before Christmas two boys were actually heard arranging "time and place and weapons"—because one boy had counted three more pieces in his box than the other.

The girls have settled their little differences in a more friendly and quiet manner as a general rule.

TROUBLE'S SETTLED.

As a result of all this unhappy turmoil and trouble an elaborate system of weights and measures have been arranged for the occasion and, each individual irrespective of sex, color, character and accomplishments, will be supplied with a generous bag or box of confections. It is hoped that all former enemies and rivals will amicably step up with kindness in their hearts and their purses in their hands.

SOPHS GET OUT.

There will be a meeting of the Sophomore debating League to-day at Chapel time in Prof. McClumpha's room. Every member of the League should be present. Get ready for the Fresh-Soph contest.

BILL IS LOST BY NARROW MARGIN

Amendments used as Riders Defeat Move in Senate—Motion for Reconsideration Lost

After no debate or discussion in the Senate, the Board of Control Bill was lost yesterday. A motion for reconsideration was also lost.

The defeat of the bill was due to the addition of several amendments that changed the entire effect of the bill to a great extent. Several members who were known to be in favor of the adoption of the original were obliged to vote it down for this reason.

SUNDAY MEETING.

Men's Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Building Next Sunday Afternoon.

The men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday will be addressed by the General Secretary, who will speak on "A Dominant Motive." This meeting is held at the request of the large number of men who desire to come together to consider problems common to college men.

The time is set at 4:30. Special music has been arranged for, and a profitable hour is assured to all who can come.

JUNIOR GIRLS TO GIVE FEED

They Won Tournament and Must Console the Girls on the Losing Teams

The girls' Junior Basket Ball team is due to give the spread this year to the other three teams and their coaches, having won the tournament last Saturday night.

One of the members of the winning team said that the exact date for the spread had not been decided upon as yet, but will probably be held within the next two weeks. The "feed" will probably be held in the Armory, and a very elaborate menu is in process of construction.

The girls are anxious to make it far above any other spread ever held. Witty toasts from various members of the different teams will enliven the evening and dancing in the main part of the Armory will follow the spread.

"SECOND FLOOR FRONT."

All girls who wish to enjoy themselves to the utmost come to the Armory at three o'clock this afternoon. The Woman's League will give one of the parties which are noted for the good time all who attend them have.

The two-act farce, "Second Floor Front" will be given between three and half-past three, so all girls are urged to come early.

Alumni Have Lost Faith in Authorities Wealth of the State Should Warrant Larger Appropriations--Some Comparisons with Other State Expenditures

It has been the custom of past years, when the representatives of the University got together, especially when any members of the legislature were present, to laud the generosity of the state in caring for the University and giving it the necessary funds to develop it into the institution which it is today.

Alumni Speak Out.

We have always believed that this sort of talk was all wrong; last Saturday evening the alumni, at their banquet, broke away from the traditions and spoke right out in meeting, their inmost thoughts, and said plainly that the state has not been generous to the University. They went further, and proved their case, by citing what the state had done for other institutions in contrast for what it had done for the University; they told the salaries paid by the state to its other servants, and contrasted the same with the salaries being paid to the University professors. Every word said upon this subject was an honest expression of deep feeling, and we believe that it marks the beginning of a new and better day for the University; a day of greater things.

Generosity of State.

This is a fair question. The question of generosity is not so much a question of amount as of relative amounts. The millionaire may give thousands and yet be stingy, and the poor man may give a dollar and be generous. Has the state, in view of its resources and in view of what it has done for other departments of the state, been generous with the University? In considering this matter, it should not be forgotten that the state is supplying but forty-two per cent of what is being spent by the University for current expenses.

Salaries of Professors.

Taking the figures, showing the average salary paid the professors, assistant professors and instructors, given in the Weekly of January 23rd, $1411.42 per cent of which amount is $592.62, is the average portion of these salaries paid by the state. But it is not necessary to go so far. Take the full average amount paid these persons, $1411, the average salary paid by the state to its other officers, high and low included, would go far above this average. Is this generosity? When the fact of the long years of preparation, necessary to fill such a position, is taken into account, and is set off over against the fact that for these other positions, no special preparation is required, is the state generous with its highest educational institution?

Other Expenditures.

Take again this further fact: The state has spent for its capitol buildings more than five millions of dollars, and plans are afoot for the securing of further sums for the beautifying of the present capitol by securing more land. (To this we have no objection.) It has spent for its University buildings $1,679,786.56. Is this generous? A father who discriminated so between his children, and lavished his millions upon dress for the one, and gave the other sums insufficient for a liberal education, would not be considered generous to the one who was neglected, why should the state be so considered?

What People Say.

The people of this country are prone to talk of the generosity of the public to education, but is the public generous to its public educational institutions? Public money is spent with a lavish hand for many things; but can it be truthfully said that the public money has been spent extravagantly upon education?

When the city of Minneapolis was building its four-million dollar court house, it was obliged to close its schools because it could not pay the teachers their salaries. Was the city of Minneapolis generous to its sons and daughters who needed an education, and was it generous to the cause of education?

SOME SOUND STATISTICS

The following figures are eloquent, and deserve a careful study by every friend of education in the state of Minnesota. The figures are taken from the auditor's books and show what the state has spent for its various institutions from the beginning down to the present:

Institution	Support	Buildings
Prison	$ 2,569,121.92	$ 743,515.77
Reformatory	793,991.48	322,391.44
Training School	1,408,158.02	845,575.98
Insane	10,467,357.77	2,780,226.33
Deaf, dumb, blind, weak-minded	3,278,529.42	982,652.49
*University	2,962,357.77	1,673,500.00
Normal Schools	2,446,462.31	847,874.03
For Capitol buildings—nearly	$5,000,000.

has been spent by the University, while, as a matter of fact, the state is now paying, but an average of 42 per cent of the total amount and from the beginning has averaged only a trifle more than half the expenses of the University. These figures represent the sum paid by the state for the University.

N. B.—The state has spent for the University, for all purposes, $4,635,857.77.

For its prison and reform school it has spent $4,429,020.66.

For its insane asylum it has spent $13,248,041.05.

For its deaf, dumb, blind, and weak-minded, which in the report are grouped in one item, it has spent $4,261,181.91.

The state has cared for its wards generously, and no decent man would take away one dollar that would add to the comfort of the poor unfortunates who must go through life so terribly handicapped.

A LOSS.

One point which has been practically overlooked in the discussion of board of control matters, is the loss of efficiency in the work of both professors and students, caused by delays. Professors lay out the semester's work, as experience has shown to be most advantageous. The work needs constant readjustment to meet the fact that supplies, ordered months before, are not to be had and the continuity and logical sequence of the work is broken and a real loss of efficiency is experienced. This is not a hypothetical case; there is scarcely a professor on the campus, who has any laboratory work, who has not experienced such unnecessary delays.

A business man who would allow an expensive plant to work at less than its maximum of efficiency for the lack of proper supplies on time, would not be long able to continue in business.

Just as a sample of unnecessary delay, the following is cited: On the 20th of October, 1903, the registrar made a requisition for a library bureau cabinet. The specifications and price were furnished him from the office of the library bureau, over the telephone. This requisition was approved by the regents and sent to the board of control. The cabinet was needed at once, in order to file some cards to which frequent reference had to be made.

After making frequent inquiries of the board of control's purchasing agent, the registrar was told, after several months waiting, that such a case was not manufactured, and so could not be purchased. The requisition called for an 8-drawer case, while the standard size is a 9-drawer cabinet. A new requisition was made and sent through the regular channels on the 28th of last March. The requisition being made out from a catalogue of the library bureau. Frequent inquiry has been made, from that day to the present, and the registrar does not know to this day, whether the board intends to allow the purchase of this cabinet or not. He knows that now, sixteen months after the requisition was first made, he is still waiting for the case, and that in spite of frequent requests for information, he is still in ignorance of the board's plans in regard to the matter. This is only one of many similar cases that might be cited.

ON WHICH SIDE DO YOU STAND?

Senator J. F. Calhoun of Minneapolis, speaking of the saving made by the board of control, termed it "The same as a saving by the poor family that goes without sugar, and one that the state does not want." He said that the board of control desired the educational institutions removed from their care.

Senator Albert Schaller of Hastings made a fiery address. "It is not a question of education," he said, "but dollars and cents for the taxpayers." He declared that it made no difference in the educational standard of the institutions whether the money was spent under board of control or board of regents' auspices.

SERVICE STRIPES.

They will be Worn by Cadets in Morgan's Army.

Orders were read at inspection last Saturday demanding an addition to uniforms in the way of service stripes. The stripes are to be of silk or mohair one-eighth inch wide, and to be worn on the sleeves, the first one-half inch above the present stripe and the others one-eighth inch above the previous one. Sophomores are recognized by one band on each sleeve, Juniors by two, and Seniors by three.

PLAYERS PICKED.

Parts for "Pillars of Society" are Decided Upon.

Among the sixty people who tried for parts in the play, "Pillars of Society," twenty have been chosen by the committee, consisting of Mr. Holt, Miss Peck, Mrs. Potter and Miss Ada Comstock.

The characters are Consul Bernick, George Walker; Miss Bernick, the consul's sister, Frances Chamberlain; Johan Tornesen, Mrs. Bernick's younger brother, Nathan Blackburn; Miss Hessel (Lona), her elder step-sister, Cornelia Hollingshead; Hilmar Tornesen, Mrs. Bernick's cousin, Cyrus Brown; Rector Rorlund, F. Hensel; Rummel, Vigeland and Scendstad, merchants, Fred Payne, Fred Calhoun and Paul Spooner; Dina Dorf, a young girl living in the Consul's house, Sarah Preston; Kraf, the Consul's clerk, Mandel Tondel; Ship-builder Aune, Jacob Wilk; Mrs. Rummel, Ruth Haynes; Miss Holt, Florence Hoffin; Mrs. Lyngge, Marjorie Vance; Miss Holt, Alice Stratton, and Mrs. Rorlund, Eva Blaisdell.

Owing to the importance of this performance the club has departed from its custom, and called upon people outside to take part.

The greatest difficulty was experienced in choosing the parts and there are still two which are undecided.

The first rehearsal will take place Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the north wing of the Armory.

It is absolutely important that every member of the caste be present with lines committed.

ORATORS CHOSEN.

Speakers in the Pillsbury Finals are Decided Upon.

The preliminary for the Pillsbury contest was held Thursday night and six contestants were chosen from a list of nine candidates. The orations were of a high degree of merit, and the contest promises to be of an unusually high class.

The successful candidates and the titles of the orations are: Miss Fannie Fligelman, "The Russian Jew and Bureaucracy;" H. C. Brockway, "The Railway Problem;" P. E. Carlson, "Capital and Labor;" A. W. Johnson, "The Citizen and the Republic;" D. C. Dow, "The Reunion of Our Race;" Theodore Christianson, "Patrick Henry, the Agitator."

The final contest will be held March 14, in chapel and there the prizes of $100, $50 and $25 will be awarded. The winner will represent Minnesota at the annual contest of the Northern Oratorical League.

GET YOUR TICKETS.

Tickets for the reading of "The City" by Mrs. Ida S. Deerbom will be in the Y. W. C. A. office at the end of the fourth hour on Saturday, and the girls of the Woman's League who are to sell them will please call for them there.

 Satisfaction Guaranteed

The Faculty of Comfort
 is only one of the good qualities with which President Suspenders are especially endowed. Other features are good wear, good looks and gentleness to buttons, all of which are due to the patent adjustable back that moves when you do—gives freedom and ease.
PRESIDENT Suspenders
 for these reasons, are ideal athletic, class-room and dress suspenders. Guaranteed satisfaction or money back. Price 50c and $1.00, every store everywhere or mailed postpaid.

We are the PIANO HOUSE of the Northwest

Simply because people have learned that they can rely on our goods and our promises. For 25 years we have been building this business and the confidence of our patrons and friends is our reward.
 Steinway, Knabe, Ivers & Pond, Emerson, Gabler, Smith & Barnes, and other reliable pianos. These are the ones that have helped to give us the foremost position among piano houses.
