NO FLOWERS FOR BIG PARTY.

Concert Will Be Played At Military Ball During Dances.

Following the time honored campus tradition, the 1913 Military Ball Association has passed a "no flower" act. The orchestra has been rehearsing daily and a concert program will be given during supper. The caterer has completed the supper arrangements and the table diagrams will be posted Friday. Reservation can be made any time up to 5:40 P. M.

LAW TO BE DISREGARDED BY ALL-UNIVERSITY CIRCUS

Cabaret Show Will Operate In Spite Of a Troublesome City Ordinance.

Special Expedition Returns From Occident With Numerous Freaks.

The recent law against cabaret shows which will be put into operation May 1st by Mayor Nye of Minneapolis, is causing the All-University circus managers a good deal of concern inasmuch as it hits directly at one of the best features of the big show to be given on Northrop Field, May 9th and 10th. The managers have hinted that they will openly defy the restraining order and will test it in the courts. They further argue that inasmuch as the circus will take place on state property, the city laws cannot be enforced against the management. Any attempt at interference on the part of the city authorities will be fought bitterly in the courts and the legal firm of Hooligan, McGinty, and Hooligan has been retained as counsel with instructions to take the case into the highest courts if necessary. Mr. McGinty in speaking of the case said today, "This here persecutions of my clients has got to quit, and I'm here to see that it don't go any farther."

Word has been received from San Francisco that the S. S. Sally Anne Evans will reach port tomorrow having aboard the six mammoth specimens of Dinosauria diplodocus which were captured in the Philippine jungles. A wireless message was received from the first mate to the effect that seven of the crew were eaten alive by the ferocious beasts. These same animals will be exhibited at the All-University Circus, May 9th and 10th, after which they will be sent to Smithsonian Institute inasmuch as they are the only animals of the kind in existence.

KEYSER TO DEFINE "SPACE."

Columbia Professor Will Lecture In Chapel Thursday Evening.

What is space? Professor C. J. Keyser, of Columbia University will answer this perplexing question in a lecture in the University chapel, Thursday April 24, at 8:15 P. M. The subject of Professor Keyser's lecture is "Concerning the Figure and the Dimensions of Space." It will be given under the auspices of the Minnesota chapter of the society of the Sigma Xi, who have issued card invitations. The lecture is free and open to the public.

ACADEMIC STUDENT COUNCIL WILL BE ELECTED TODAY

All Classes Will Chose Representatives in Folwell This Noon.

Retiring Administration Has Passed Many Wise Resolutions.

The Annual election of class representatives to the Academic Student Council for the school year 1913-14 will be held at noon today in Folwell Hall. The Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, will meet separately to elect their representatives. Harrison Fuller will have charge of the men of the Freshmen class in room 101, Fred Weersing of the Sophomores in 102, and Harold Rypins of the Juniors in 104. The Freshmen women will vote in room 105 at a meeting presided over by Luella Bussey, the Sophomores in 109 under Althea Heitsmith, and the Juniors in 110, under Elizabeth Aiton.

The Council, which in joint meeting is presided over by the Senior class president, consists of a Men's Council and a Women's Council, each of which contains three representatives from the Senior class, two from the Junior Class and one from the Sophomore class. The election of Senior representatives is held in the following manner. By a preliminary secret ballot each person nominates three candidates. From the six nominees receiving the highest number of votes, three are elected by a second ballot. The two Junior representatives on the respective councils are elected from five candidates nominated in the above manner. The Sophomore representative is elected from three candidates, likewise nominated by ballot.

JUNIORS WILL GIVE PARTY

Much Entertainment Is Promised. Third Year Men At Big Get Together.

The entertainment which is being arranged for the All-Junior get-together, to be held in the armory, April 26, was recently strengthened by the addition of two comedy skits, one from the academic college and one from the agriculture college. George Geib and Rolph Chamberlain of "The Watchers" fame, have promised to add their share to the evening's entertainment. The Agricultural college, likewise promised its help when Spencer Cleland, a junior, agreed to entertain with a new vaudeville stunt.

Although these late additions have materially helped the program for the evening, the juniors in charge of the affair are hoping that all colleges which have not yet promised a contribution will get together, and devise plans for something. Only three colleges have signified their intention of putting on stunts to date, and the medics, laws, dents and chemists, are yet to be heard from.

Late yesterday the campus blazed with lurid posters, and this morning members of the junior class placed tickets on sale.

FRENCH SOCIETY WILL MEET.

Mademoiselle Dreyfus Will Read From Victor Hugo.

The Alliance Francaise will hold the last meeting of the year tonight at 8 o'clock in Room No. 209 Folwell Hall. Mademoiselle Dreyfus will read from Lucrece Borgia by Victor Hugo. After the program there will be a reception in the Faculty Parlor. All those interested in the French language are cordially invited to both the literary programme and to the reception.

JOINT GLEE CLUB CONCERT DELIGHTS LARGE AUDIENCE

Both Clubs Enthusiastically Received In Rendition of Varied Program.

Large Crowd Taxes Seating Capacity Of Armory—Concert Great Success.

When the Michigan-Minnesota Glee club concert was given last night, such was the popularity of the two organizations and such the interest in the attraction that the armory was hardly large enough to accommodate the crowd. The program was opened shortly after eight o'clock with a rendition of "The Yellow and Blue" by the Michigan club. This was followed by another splendidly rendered piece, "Laudes Atque."

Miles McNally received an ovation after singing "The Kavanaugh" and "All Through The Night". "Swing Along," a rollicking piece was then presented by the whole Minnesota club and was enthusiastically received by the assemblage. Not to be outdone by the Minnesota club, the Michigan glee men filled the armory with the rollicking chorus of "Prince Rupert's Men."

The program was closed with "The Victors," by the Minnesota club, and a "College Medley" by the Michigan glee club who finished with "Minnesota" which brought the audience to their feet. The program closed at 10 o'clock and the Michigan men left immediately for Madison.

The concert was followed by dancing which continued until 12 o'clock. The whole program proved a success from every standpoint, and will not soon be forgotten by Minnesotans who attended.

MURPHY TO LECTURE TUES.

Need For An Efficient Health Service is Eminent Doctor's Theme.

Dr. John B. Murphy, professor of Medical Surgery at North Western University, will deliver a lecture in the Library, Tuesday evening, April 22nd. His subject is "The Need for an Efficient Health Service in the United States, from an Economic Standpoint." Dr. Murphy is a man of high standing and much ability and is expected to deliver an interesting and instructive talk.

This date has been changed from the 17th to accommodate the Glee Club.

INCREASED DEMAND MAKES MORE GOPHERS NECESSARY

Seventy-five More Copies Of Annual Ordered By Business Manager.

This Years Edition Will Be The Best Ever. Staff Works Night And Day.

Business manager, Harvey Hoshour of the 1914 Gopher, yesterday announced that seventy-five extra numbers of the big Junior Annual will be published to supply those who have been coming in since Gopher tag day, and any others who wish to have a copy of the big book and have not signed up before. This brings the total number of copies of the 1914 annual up to 1825, which far surpasses the largest previous record.

The contract for the cover has also been let. It will open the narrow way, instead of the ledger form adopted last year. The design and leather covering is to excel anything ever seen in Minnesota annuals. The paper of this year's annual will also be of extra fine quality. The lump contract price for the paper alone is $600. It is not quite so heavy as the quality used heretofore, but thinner and more firm, giving the greatest wearing quality with the least thickness.

The management expressed great satisfaction with the promptness with which the work has been done this year. The large staff has had a short breathing spell while the work was being set up, but are at it harder than ever correcting proof. Each department head does this work for himself, thus facilitating the matter a great deal. "The books will be out on time this year," said the business manager yesterday, "and large trucks will carry them to the various distributing points on the campus early on the morning of May 1st, the Minnesota Gopher day."

"BART" TO GIVE CHALK TALK

Journal Cartoonist To Entertain For Y. W. C. A. In Chapel Tomorrow.

Mr. C. L. Bartholomew, generally known as "Bart," the talented cartoonist of the Minneapolis Journal, will deliver a chalk talk in Chapel at 4 P. M. tomorrow. The lecture which will be under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of the University, will be interspersed with many "local hits done in crayon," which coming as they do from the clever hand of "Bart" should prove very amusing. Admission to the lecture will be 25 cents. Tickets may be purchased in the post-office at noon today.

The proceeds will be used for work in the different departments of the Y. W. C. A.

As Mr. Bartholomew's cartoons are recognized by critics to be of the highest character, a large crowd is expected to attend the lecture tomorrow.

THE CONCERT.

The glee clubs of the universities of Michigan and Minnesota last night united in giving the university public a joint concert. The fact that it was a joint concert is significant in more ways than one. It is significant, first, of the friendly relationship which the two universities have always enjoyed. It is significant of the high regard in which Minnesota has always held Michigan and which has been shown her in return. It is eminently fitting, therefore, that last night's concert should be one more manifestation of our wish that, "We want to go back to Michigan."

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

The Daily desires to call attention to the elections which are to take place today. Members of all academic classes are to assemble at their respective polls for the purpose of electing their representatives on the Academic Student Council. We wish to urge that the student body take a keener interest in choosing these representatives.

While no work in the university is as little appreciated as the work of the Academic Student Council, it has in reality accomplished many valuable things. Its work has been of a nature that sometimes goes unnoticed and unappreciated but which, at the same time has carried into effect many useful plans. Among other things with which the newly elected council will have to deal, is the question of the honor system. This, and many other important matters, will form the field of its labor. So with this in mind it behooves the members of the academic body to show more than a passive interest in the choice of representatives for the Council and to manifest this interest by appearing at the polls today.

GRANRUD TO SHOW SLIDES.

Latin Prof. Will Give Illustrated Lecture On Roman Sculpture

Prof. John E. Granrud will deliver a stereopticon lecture on Roman Portrait Sculpture from Sulla to Constantine, next Friday at 4:15 in 209 Folwell Hall. Free admission. The Latin department has an almost complete set of slides of the emperors from Augustus to Caracalla, and a number of new slides have been made by the Department of Chemistry under the supervision of Prof. Frary. They illustrate Roman coiffures and show Roman skill in portraying children, and in representing people in the ordinary walks of life.

DEMONSTRATION TRIP THURS.

Train is Specially Equipped With Conveniences For Informing The Farmers.

The annual trip of the special agricultural train, that is sent out by the extension department of the University, will begin tomorrow. The train will leave today for Duluth and will visit twenty four towns in St. Louis county. Each stop is two hours, during which time lectures and demonstrations are given by the experts in charge of the train. One section of the train is devoted to showing how labor may be lightened in the kitchen. The car is fitted up as a model farm-house kitchen. Another car is used to teach the youngsters of Minnesota the elements of successful poultry keeping. Time is also devoted to the home garden and to manual training.

Miss E. J. Stearns of the state library board will explain how the privileges of libraries are obtained and Miss Delia Pierce, who is a trained nurse, will tell how to treat common ailments and what to do until the doctor comes.

The remainder of the train will be given over to the subjects that interest the farmer directly. Animal husbandry, poultry, farm machinery, farm and garden crops will be the subject of the many lectures. The experts will lecture on pure bred stock that is being carried with them to illustrate their points. The Duluth & Iron Range, Duluth, Messabe & Northern, Great Northern and the Canadian Northern are co-operating to make the special a success.

Wellesley—College students at Wellesley have formed an anti-marriage club. Members are pledged to single blessedness for three years after graduation, and then to marry a man with an income of $5,000 or more.

PROF. JENKS COMMENTS ON DRAMATIC CLUB PRODUCTION

Anthropology Head Criticizes Favorably Miss Zellers' Comedy.

Writes That Play Deals With Big Problems of Modern Everyday Life.

It is a pleasure to respond to a request to-day from a member of the Dramatic Club for a brief personal statement about Miss Zeller's play, "The Watchers," as produced in Chapel Saturday evening.

The worth of the play, as well as its strength, lies in its informing idea. That idea, as an ideal, is the hope of every man and woman who conscientiously contemplates marriage; it would be a great thing if it were also true of all who get married—but alas! That ideal of the unity of interest is inestimably more wholesome than is the problem play centered in the home. From such a play the audience goes away ready to wager either "heads I win" or "tails you lose" that that family breaks up. Its going to. There are plenty of problems in life, even in every home, and a play written and presented by students which offers inspiration and ideals, at the same time that it entertains, signifies a much more wholesome life than as though the family in the play was represented by an explosive bomb set with a ninety-minute fuse. Ideals, and not explosives, are the cement of homes.

The play and its presentation taken together are the best purely student dramatic efforts I have seen on the Campus. All of the acting was good; some of it was really clever; and some of it was as genuinely true to life as amateurs can well get.

It would not be amiss to repeat the performance so it could be enjoyed by a larger proportion of University people who believe in worth-while student activities.

A. E. Jenks.

VARSITY WINS AGAIN FROM FAST NORTHERN LEAGUERS

Gophers Let In Five Runs In The First, But Settle Down In Later Sessions.

Handschu, Lawler and Garvey Hit Well, Bringing Over Eight Runs.

The Varsity administered a second defeat to the Bronchos of the Northern league in a seven inning contest at Northrop Field yesterday afternoon by a score of 8 to 5.

The Gophers fielded loosely during the first inning and allowed five of the leaguers to cross the plate. After this they steadied and allowed but three of the Minneapolis men to reach first.

The Gophers led by Charles Handschu, Lawler, and Garvey featured the contest by their heavy hitting. Garvey twirled the first three innings for the University, holding the opposing batsmen at his mercy after the first inning. Herman Handschu took the mound in the fourth and struck out nine of the leaguers during the remaining four innings. Garvey scored first for the Gophers on a sensational steal home. Coach Sullivan's men added three more tallies in the first inning, two in the second, and two in the fourth.

Summary: Earned runs—Minnesota 5; 2-base hits—Garvey, Lawler; 3-base hits—C. Handschu; base on balls off McClure 1; off Garvey 1; struck out by Garvey 3, by Handschu 9 by McClure 12; hit by pitcher—Lawler and Eveland by McClure; stolen bases Costello, Griffin, Garvey, Handschu,

GOPHERS TO RUN RELAY

Four Athletes Are Rounding Into Shape For Meet At Des Moines.

On Friday night of this week, the Minnesota relay team will leave for Des Moines, Iowa, to compete in the four mile relay race at the Drake Relay Carnival. The relay meet at Des Moines will be one of the most important and interesting relay meets ever held in the West. Thirty-five high schools, colleges, and universities are entered in this meet, and these institutions will be represented by over four hundred athletes, appearing on eighty-five different teams.

Minnesota has already made arrangements with Coach Griffith at Des Moines, to enter a four mile relay team, of four men, who are as follows; Ray Brown, Allen Moore, George McKeon, and Henry Merdink. The majority of the team is composed of men who were on the cross country team last fall, and undoubtedly are in excellent shape to do good work at Des Moines.

Coach Grant, of Minnesota, says that our team has excellent prospects of winning distinction in this meet. The track here is being rapidly overhauled, and the Minnesota runners are taking the opportunity that the present splendid weather offers, to get in some good strides before the coming meet.

MINNE-HA-HA BOARD ELECTS

Business Manager Is Appointed To Vacancy, And Advertising Manager Selected.

At a meeting of the Controlling Board of The Minne-Ha-Ha, yesterday Mr. Dow I. Sears, E 1915, was elected business manager for the ensuing year. Mr. Sears has been the business agent of the magazine heretofore, and has been so successful in carrying out the duties of that position that the Board has decided to let him pilot the business side of the funny mag. next year. Mr. Carl A. Gunnarson, who has been connected with the magazine as associate editor, was elected advertising manager.

The Minne-Ha-Ha! Board regrets the loss of Carl Smith as business manager, but as this is his Senior year it will be impossible for him to stay with the magazine.

At the meeting material was presented for the Circus number of the magazine for next month. As this is the last issue of the year the Board intends to make it the best of the nine issues, and to that end has been working on the material for some weeks. Further plans will be announced in regard to the Circus number later.
