presents

GROUCHO FRACTAL

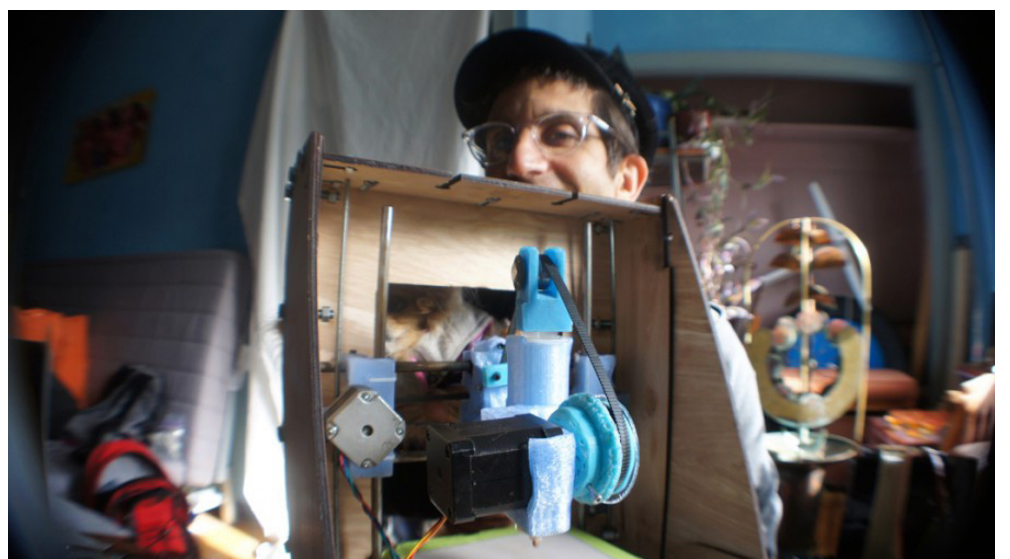

Scott Beibin explores the intersection of science, consciousness, art, and nature. An electrifying and interactive workshop about the meaning of being on this planet!

MONDAY, APRIL 20
7 PM | GRIGGS CENTER

Free to UMD students | $5 suggested donation for community members

The Goostruder is a 3D printer co-designed by Scott Beibin that creates organic vegan snacks from brainwaves and is largely constructed from biodegradable and post-consumer recycled materials.

Dance party to follow!
