VOL. I

WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1919

NO. 126

TO THE STUDENTS:

Charles Reynolds Brown, Dean of the School of Religion at Yale University, will be our convocation speaker tomorrow morning at 11:30 in the Armory. Dean Brown is a speaker of rare skill. No man speaks to Yale men more frequently or with greater acceptance than Dean Brown. Students of public speaking will do well to observe carefully his methods. He speaks without a manuscript, but with a finish and conciseness which are delightful and convincing. EVERY STUDENT IN THE UNIVERSITY OUGHT TO HEAR HIM. His subject will be "The Best Use of Knowledge."
M. L. BURTON, President

DEAN BROWN will also speak to the men of the University at 4:30 Thursday afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. Club-room. His subject will be "Choosing a Life Work." All men at the University are invited to be present.

TO HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

It is requested that departments prepare for presentation to the Purchasing Department at once lists of equipment known to be required during the year 1919-20. These lists should be in requisition form and, so far as possible, items of a similar nature should be grouped together. Small items of laboratory equipment and other items which can be obtained through the Storehouse should not be included. However, in doubtful cases, it would be better to include rather than omit.

PURCHASING DEPARTMENT

THE UNIVERSITY SENATE will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 in the Library of the Main Engineering Building.
