MSU Moorhead Fends Off Late Charge for Minnesota Crookston in 2-1 Loss for Golden Eagles

CROOKSTON, Minn. – The University of Minnesota Crookston soccer team battled until the final whistle Sun., Nov. 3 in a 2-1 loss to Minnesota State University Moorhead. The Golden Eagles made the final four minutes of the game tense as Maggie Peterson (Jr., F, Princeton, Minn.) scored her second goal of the season in the 86th minute. The Golden Eagles tried to get the equalizer but MSU Moorhead came away with the 2-1 victory despite one of the best efforts for Minnesota Crookston of the 2019 season.

The Golden Eagles fall to 0-14 (0-13 NSIC) with Sunday's loss. MSU Moorhead improves to 6-6-4 (4-6-3 NSIC). MSU Moorhead is led by former Golden Eagle Christie (Chappell) Kopietz, who became the program's first-ever soccer player in the Athletic Hall of Fame earlier this Fall.

Minnesota Crookston had five shots with three shots on goal, compared to 16 overall shots for the Dragons with seven shots on goal. The Golden Eagles were just shy in corner kicks with four attempted to MSU Moorhead's five. Minnesota Crookston won the possession battle in the first half, and was close in the second half as they were able to keep the ball and string together passes that posed a threat against their opposition. The Golden Eagles have continued to show improvement throughout the season in Head Coach Kyle Halfpop's first year with the program.

Minnesota Crookston was led by the play of Peterson, who scored her second goal of the 2019 season. Peterson had four shots with three shots on goal. Peterson assisted her second goal, as she connected with her fellow former Princeton Tiger, Jacqueline Burke (Sr., D, Anchorage, Alaska) also had a shot for the Golden Eagles.

MSU Moorhead was guided by Kaylee Parsons, who scored her first goal. Lindsey Brownnell added a goal on two shots with the Golden Eagles.

MSU Moorhead got on the scoreboard first, as they scored after a stream of shots in the box. Brownnell put away the goal after Odegaard had a shot that was blocked.

The Golden Eagles had a strong chance near the top of the box in the 28th minute, but Peterson's attempt was saved by Kayleigh Sedlacek.

Parsons had an attempt on goal for the Dragons in the 31st minute, but her shot was put away by Athena DiMario Done. MSU Moorhead went into the break up 1-0.

Parsons had a chance early in the second half that was saved by DiMario Done.

Minnesota Crookston had a shot that was wide from Burke in the 56th minute.

The Golden Eagles had a shot from Peterson that was blocked in the 62nd minute as they looked to continue to find the equalizer.

Soon after, Parsons found the net on a rocket off the free kick for the Dragons.

Maren Soupir put a shot on net for MSU Moorhead in the 65th minute, but DiMario Done turned away the chance.

Jacie Osier had another chance for the Dragons that was saved by DiMario Done in the 77th minute.

The Golden Eagles had a chance in the 81st minute from Peterson that was saved by Kennedy Rodgers.

Minnesota Crookston was able to take advantage of opportunity soon after. Vanessa Shelton (Jr., MF, Tacoma, Wash.) won a ball in the midfield and quickly turned it into opportunity. Rodgers came out of the goal for the Dragons to contend with a threat from Donnay in the corner, but she went back into net, but not before Peterson was able to get off a shot into the left corner of the goal to cut the deficit to 2-1.

Minnesota Crookston looked for chances to even up the game but they were unable to knot up the score as the Dragons won 2-1.

DiMario Done had five saves and two goals allowed in 90 minutes. With her five saves, she ties her former teammate Olivia Puttin for fifth all-time in career saves.

Sedlacek got the win in net for MSU Moorhead with one save and no goals allowed. Rodgers allowed one goal and had one save in 23:44 in net.

Minnesota Crookston remains at home the rest of the way. The Golden Eagles will take on Minot State University at 1 p.m., at the Minnesota Crookston Soccer Field Tues., Nov. 5.
