finished 2-of-3 with one RBI, while Gabriel Antolak (Sr., C/3B, Zimmerman, Minn.) was 2-of-4 for the day.

Providence looked to the pitching of Kristina George, who went seven innings, giving up just one runs on nine hits with six strikeouts.

The Golden Eagles had nine hits on the day but struggled to have opportune hits to get runs across.

The Argos got the scoring started in the top of the third as Gabrielle Canibeyaz came through with a double to left center to drive in Bailey Henderson and Karlie Southworth. The double drove Silvain from the game, as Klaphake came on in relief for the Golden Eagles. Providence added a run to move the advantage to 3-0 when Gonzales singled in Canibeyaz.

Minnesota Crookston had bases loaded in the bottom of the third with two outs following singles from Antolak and Victoria Bayliss (Sr., OF, West Bloomfield, Mich.) and a double from Morales. However, Providence pitched out of any further danger as they held the 3-0 lead.

The Argos added two runs in the top of the fourth. The scoring started when Southworth singled up the middle to bring Hanna Tarum home. Later in the frame, Canibeyaz singled up the middle to bring in Ashton Bell to move the lead for Providence to 5-0.

The Golden Eagles threatened in the bottom of the fourth as they had two on when Haley Stachan (Jr., OF, Phoenix, Ariz.) reached on an error and Proctor singled. Morales then singled up the middle to drive in Proctor. Strachan tried to score from second but was thrown out at home from center field. Proctor's run cut the lead to 5-1. Neither team would put much together the rest of the way as Providence took the game 5-1.

The Golden Eagles won 6-4 over Dawson Community College in an exhibition Sat., Feb. 17. Silvain got the win in relief after going two innings and shutting out Dawson Community College with no runs on two hits.

Paige Pitlick (So., RHP, Jordan, Minn.) got the start against Dawson and went 3.2 innings, allowing no runs on three hits with five strikeouts.
