DULUTH--UMD's Tweed Gallery will feature two exhibitions beginning next week.

An exhibit of children's art from the Florida Federation of Art Collection will run from Sunday (July 9) through August 14. Paintings were selected from more than 300 entries by children from all parts of Florida.

UMD summer session students will be entertained at a reception Wednesday afternoon (July 13) at the opening of the Craftwork Display of works by first term art students. Jewelry, mosaics, weaving and silver holloware are among the items to be shown.

Tweed Gallery hours are from 7:45 a.m. to noon and 12:45 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.
