KICKING CONTEST

Captain Knowlton wins by 1.9 Points above Rogers. Bidlake Third.

The kicking contest yesterday on Northrop Field was hotly contested from start to finish, as the records of the leaders show, Knowlton who finally won out being only four points ahead of the third man, Bidlake. The contest consisted of five punts for distance, two kick-offs, three drop kicks from the 25 and three from the 40-yard lines and three place kicks from the 15 and 30-yard lines.

In the punts each five yards scored counted as one point, an additional five points being given for each kick in line of the goal posts. In the drop kick each goal counted 3 points when kicked from the 25-yard and five points from the 40-yard line. The successful place kicks counting two and five points respectively. Points in the kick-off were scored in the same manner as in the punts.

Nine men entered the contest, the total scores being as follows:

1. Knowlton	98.6
2. Rogers	96.7
3. Bidlake	94.6
4. Liggett	76.4
5. Dobie	76.0
6. Robertson	73.8
7. Harris	73.2
8. Thorpe	67.2
9. Allen	52.8

In the punting Knowlton and Bidlake tied for first place with 50.6 points each, Rogers being third with a score of 46.5. Rogers led in the drop kick, scoring 16, Knowlton second at 12 and Dobie third at 9. Four men, Rogers, Thorpe, Bidlake and Knowlton tied with 16 points each in the place kicking. The score for the three leaders in the kick-off was, Liggett, 24.6, Bidlake 22.2 and Knowlton 20. Knowlton thus wins the gold medal which he will be entitled to hold for one year when it must be again contested for. The contest was a success in every way and should prove of no small importance in the future development of men adapted to propel the pigskin through the air for the Maroon and Gold.

DR. BURTON ONCE MORE

Dr. Burton is to give two more lecture-recitals at First Unitarian church. The program is as follows: November 30, "The Short Story," with readings of Kipling's "Gourtship of Dinah Shadd;" December 14, "The Place of Parody," with readings from Bret Harte, Thackeray, and others.

Tickets are on sale at Wilson's and at Hyde & Manual's book stores. Admission to the two lectures, 50c; one lecture, 35c.

SATURDAY'S GAME

It Will Be a Great Contest and Much Interest is Centered on The Result

Tomorrow's game with the strong Northwestern team will be one of the greatest games of the season. Northwestern, barring her defeat by Michigan, has a good record this fall. She succeeded in defeating Illinois by a decisive score, while Illinois piled up a big score against Iowa. This game will enable us to get a line on the chances we have against Illinois on Thanksgiving day.

Northwestern always plays a fast, plucky game and are worthy opponents in every sense of the word. The game will in all probability be an exceedingly fast one, and will be an interesting one to watch. It is hoped that a large number of Minnesota "rooters" will accompany the team to Chicago and show the citizens of the Windy City what we can do in the line of rooting.

Northwestern has been practicing hard for this game, and will put forth every effort to win. The scrubs have been using Minnesota formations to give the regulars practice in breaking them up. Capt. Deitz and Ward have been placed in the guard positions, thus greatly strengthening their center. Sanson, left tackle, has been troubled with an injured ankle, and if he is not able to get in the game tomorrow his place will be taken by Kafir. It is understood that G. O. Deitz, who has been out of the game of some time may be able to play tomorrow.

Minnesota has been practicing hard, and the men seem to play with even more speed than formerly. All of the men who played in Saturday's game will play tomorrow and will strain every effort to wipe out the memory of the Wisconsin game.

COLUMBIA-NAVY

Columbia won from the Naval Academy Wednesday, by the score of 6-5. The game was closely fought and the score was in doubt until the end.

THE VARSITY BAND

Preparations for Receiving Reports in Chapel from the Game Saturday.

The Daily has succeeded in securing the services of the full University band for Saturday and there will be no lack of music during the afternoon. If desired the songs may be sung, the band leading with its usual spirit. Other interesting features of the program which has been arranged will be announced later.

An effort this time will be made to trace every play on a black board, the telegraph service making such a plan feasible. In addition, the ball will be kept in motion as the plays are made on the field, thus making it possible to follow every play in the game.

The team went to Chicago last night and from the determined appearances of their faces it is safe to say they will play with a much different spirit than on last Saturday. Hence more favorable reports and a better time for everyone.

NEW BULLETIN

A bulletin of the college of science, literature and arts has just been published. This is the first bulletin that has appeared since the semester plan was adopted at the University, and it contains in addition to its ordinary contents all the changes which have been made in the course of study in the academic department as well as the recent changes in the requirements for admission. The bulletin covers all the courses of study during the four years and the graduate work offered at the institution.

A list of the accredited schools and the private preparatory schools in the state is to be found in the appendix of the bulletin.

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA

Mr. Rose is much encouraged with the newly organized orchestra; the rehearsal Monday evening was successful and a strong organization is assured. The Y. M. C. A. has secured the services of the orchestra for its Sunday meetings until vacation and all men are invited. Y. M. C. A. building Sunday 2:30.

A NEW RATE

The railroads have finally made a small reduction in the rate to Chicago for the Northwestern game. For parties of ten a rate of $8 each will be offered. If people do not form such parties they will have to pay the regular pool rate of $11.50.

E. G. Parmalee was on the campus Thursday.

Basket Ball

The interest in basketball is growing stronger every year in the west. It is only two or three years since this sport was introduced into college athletics. At the present time the intercollegiate basketball game has become recognized as the leading winter sport. The rivalry between the colleges is very keen and last year in particular many excellent games were played here at the University.

Among the leading college basketball teams in the west are Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. Last year our team had games with Iowa and Wisconsin, winning both games with a considerable margin. This year games will be played not only with most of the leading western universities and colleges, but also with Yale.

We have held the western intercollegiate championship in basketball for the past two years, and it is to be hoped that we will be able to keep the title for the coming year. The men are working hard and all that is necessary is the hearty support of the student body.

BEATEN BUT NOT DISPIRITED

The spirit at the University is of the right kind. At the rooters' mass meeting, held yesterday, there was more enthusiasm evinced than at any time since the meeting held just before the Iowa game—this in spite of the sad defeat of last Saturday. Such a spirit should encourage the team to do its best and redeem Madison at Chicago and Champaign. A team that becomes discouraged after one defeat, no matter how severe, and that is supported only in the hour of victory, is in a desperate plight.

But at the University of Minnesota neither the players nor the rooters are discouraged. The same is largely true of the admirers of the eleven outside the University. It grieved them to see the team fail to do its best in the critical game of the season, but they are not "quitters," and they hope to see their good opinion justified on Saturday and Thanksgiving.—Journal.

The following letter was received by Dr. Williams yesterday. It seems that students are not the only ones who take an interest in and who are ready to stand by the team:

To Dr. Williams and the Members of the State University Football Aggregation:

Gentlemen:—The members of Station No. 19, M. F. D., feeling a deep interest in your future success, and believing that much of the criticism pronounced against you, in reference to your recent defeat, is unjust and uncalled for, desire to express to you our deepest sympathy, and extend a spirit of encouragement that may assist you in your coming contests of the future.

Yours in a spirit of sympathy and encouragement, Members of Station No. 19, M. F. D.,

A. W. Porsch, C. I. Kingsley, Captains.

GOOD WORDS FOR THE DAIRY SCHOOL

Dean Liggett, of the State University, estimates the dairy products of Minnesota at $30,000,000 annually. This has been a rapid, almost phenomenal growth for 10 years ago Minnesota butter had little reputation and there were few co-operative creameries; but now Minnesota's creamery butter is selling in the New York market at the highest quotations, and the industry has expanded from very small beginning to the above total. Mr. Liggett attributes the rapid growth largely to the dairy school of the "U" department of agriculture, and, viewed in this light, that school has paid a large dividend on its cost of maintenance.

Young Men

Don't forget the prayer meeting today at 12:40 in the Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Haynes will lead. Subject: "Stilling the Tempt."

THE WEEKS PROGRAM

Today—Literary societies, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. prayer-meetings; reading parts, Dramatic club, 4:30 p. m.; meeting of Daily editors, 1:20 p. m.

Saturday—Football, Minnesota vs. Northwestern, report of game in chapel.

Sunday—Y. M. C. A. meeting, 2:30 p. m.

THE TEAM OFF

The team left last night over the Chicago Great Western for the Windy City, in charge of Dr. Williams. The boys were nearly all in as fit condition for Saturday's game as it is possible for them to be and while none of them would speak of the prospects, they all had a look in the eye when Northwestern was mentioned which augurs ill for the men from Evanston. Owing to the fact that the time and place of the team's departure were not generally known but a very small number of students were at the depot when the train pulled out. When next we see the boys the football season will be over and let us trust that two more victories will be added to our list.

AT OTHER COLLEGES

California will not play Princeton this fall.

Cornell has added lacrosse to her list of sports.

The Carlisle Indian band played at the Pan-American this fall.

There are 18 candidates for the Wisconsin crew this year.

Chicago, Harvard and Michigan held tennis tournaments this fall.

Brown has begun fall baseball practice.

Harvard's annual scholarships amount to $62,730.

Nearly $16,000,000 has been given to the colleges of this country since the 1st of last June.

M. Hughes Le Roux, the noted French lecturer will visit Harvard and California universities this year.

Yale college is the recipient of a $420,000 estate, to be spent in building a lyceum and for additional professorships.

Plans are being formulated at the University of California whereby there shall be a university cap, worn only by the members of the three upper classes.

Yale will doubtless have a very strong track team next spring. Nearly all of last year's team are back and many new men have entered college this fall who have excellent prep. school records.

At Cornell 35 Sophomores and 20 Freshmen have been granted the privilege of wearing their class numerals.

Five hundred and thirty-five courses are offered by the faculty of arts and science at Harvard.

Yale will meet Princeton in debate at Princeton, Dec. 6, on the subject: "Resolved, That the adoption of the 15th amendment to the constitution of the United States has been justified."

RULES FOR "FRESHIES"

The recently issued regulations to freshies by the sophs of the University of Pennsylvania are as follows:

Infants of 1905—Your friends and protectors, the sophomores, hereby promulgate the following rules for your guidance and instruction. In obedience there is safety; in disobedience, annihilation

1. Not only are freshmen forbidden the use of high hats, canes, school bags, and Buffalo pins, but they must at all times show deference and humility to all upper class men, and to sophomores in particular.

2. The cultivation of baby down is prohibited.

3. Freshies must not display pipes around college. The sucking of thumbs will be allowed.

4. Keep off the grass, Fresh! Comparisons are odorous.

5. To preserve the honor of "Dear old Penn," no freshie will be allowed to wear the Red and Blue until after freshman flunks or midyears, unless twice as much green be worn side by side with the college colors.

6. Sombre clothing must be worn by '05 during its year of mourning. "Freshies should be seen and not heard." For ornaments and class emblems we suggest yellow teething rings pendant from green ribbons.

7. Freshmen are warned not to mistake the library girls or co-eds for nurses from the hospital.

8. Since precedent and prevailing sentiment are both overwhelmingly opposed to the establishment of an infant chorus for use in connection with the chapel services, freshmen are not wanted in the choir.

9. The sophomore class in its tender regard to your welfare, will not tolerate a freshman supper. Late hours are injurious to the health of growing kids.

10. Perambulators and cribs must be left in charge of H. R. H. Pomp before fore classrooms are entered. Freshmen are cautioned against addressing his omnipotent nibs as "Josh."

11. Excessive modesty and moderation in speech, are both demanded. Nothing stronger than Jee-rue-se-lumm! Jimminy crickets! Rats! or Oh fudge! will be permitted.

Implicit obedience to the above rules is demanded of all freshmen. By order of the class of 1904.
