FINAL GAME OF SEASON

"Pudge" and Harding Will Appear in Saturday's Game on Northrop Field

The final game of the season which will be played on Northrop field will occur on Saturday afternoon when the Varsity team will line up against the college eleven. The Varsity eleven will be probably the same as the line-up against Michigan on Thanksgiving day, and will afford an opportunity to get a line of the work of the team. The college eleven will include a number of favorites and will be reinforced by three stars of former years, who will be seen on the gridiron next Saturday for the first time in a good many years.

"Pudge" Heffelfinger, the famous Yale guard, Harding and Walker will appear in the line-up of the college eleven. Their presence will add additional interest to the game, which promises to be a closely contested one.

These three players of enviable reputation in the football world have not appeared in an alumni game for several seasons. Everyone should be only too glad of the opportunity afforded to see these men line up against the younger set. Next Saturday will certainly be a red-letter day in the present football season. The event will bring to a successful conclusion all doings in football as far as Northrop field is concerned. The line-up will be as follows:

Varsity	Position	College
Rogers	l e	Tuck
Warren	l e	Burdick
Strathern	c	Webster
Flynn	l g	Harding
Smith	r g	Heffelfinger
Schacht	r t	Walker
Gray	r e	Bergen

"On To Michigan"

Today the members of the "U" Band will bombard the downtown districts with tickets for the informal tomorrow night at the Armory. The band desires to raise at least $250.00 for general expenses such as sleepers, hotel bills, etc.

This is the first time the University Band has penetrated as far east as Detroit and the presence of this organization at the game will be a great advertisement for the University and Minneapolis.

Great interest in the sending of the Band has been manifested both by the University people and the business men in general. This was shown in the fact that the Tribune was able to raise $105 in two hours time. If the business men respond as well today as they did before the boys will go down in good shape, prepared to play their very best music and help the football boys win. It is thought that with what can be solicited down town and that taken in at the informal the necessary moneys will be raised. Keep the date open. The football boys will be there, the Board of Control will be there as guests of the Band.

The Band boys want the girls to come whether they have an escort or not.

The football boys will be there without ladies and there must be partners for everyone. So don't consider formalities this time. Come alone, come doubly, come in crowds, walk, ride, run, but all come. It will be the biggest jollification meeting ever held at the University.

All students—men and women—are invited to come to the Y. M. C. A. Building today at the 2nd Hour. Various phases of life in Africa today will be presented by several of our members and a very interesting and instructive program is promised.

CHEAP RATES TO GAME

President Thelan Succeeds in Securing Round-Trip Tickets at Low Figures

President John Thelan of the Rooter's Club has succeeded in securing a rate to the Michigan-Minnesota game, and the rate is so reasonable that it is expected that the University and its friends will send down a delegation upwards of a thousand strong. The exact rate Mr. Thelan can not make public but it is considerable below $10.00 and is better than any of the rates announced about the campus yesterday. The only condition attached to the deal is that 350 tickets are sold. This is already practically assured, 150 tickets having already been pledged in St. Paul, and 200 in Minneapolis. It is expected that fully 500 university students will go. The rate is for the round trip and is through to Ann Arbor or Detroit, according to the place decided upon for the game. In case the required number of tickets are sold, a regular excursion train will be run from Minneapolis Wednesday morning arriving at Detroit or Ann Arbor in ample time for the game.

The road with which Mr. Thelan is negotiating offers to carry the band at a cheaper rate than that offered to others. The train will be run through without change of cars.

All students wishing to take advantage of this rate will consult Mr. Thelan, who has the matter in charge, or communicate with him through Box 641.

All girls wishing to take advantage of the cheap rates are urged to leave their names in Box 76, before 4 o'clock Friday.

Juniors

Those of you who have not had your pictures taken must do so at once if you wish to have them appear in the Gopher this year. The time expires Nov. 27. The pictures are now being sent to the engraver and only after the $1.50 is paid will they be put in the annual. According to contract with engravers all pictures must be in by Nov. 27. So get your pictures taken and pay your subscription otherwise your seraphic likeness will not add lustre to the pages of this year's annual. This notice is final.

WILLIAMS MAKES PROTEST

Minnesota-Michigan Game Must Be Played at Detroit or not at all

The Michigan-Minnesota game may be played at Detroit after all. Coach Williams has protested against the playing of the game at Ann Arbor, as the following telegram to Athletic Director Baird of Michigan, will indicate:

"Minnesota positively refuses to accept Ann Arbor. You personally agreed with me on Detroit. Play there or no game. Luby no authority to change this."

This announcement made to Michigan is decisive and unless Baird accedes to the demands of Minnesota, the game off. Coach Williams stated last evening that he thought that the ultimate outcome of the whole matter will be that the game would be played at Detroit as was originally intended.

Dr. Williams states that Baird had given the Minnesota athletic board to understand that the game would be played at Detroit, provided Bennett Park could be used. With this understanding the board issued grand stand tickets for Detroit. This was before the Minnesota-Wisconsin game. Wisconsin's defeat at the hands of the gophers put a different complexion on the case, however, and it looks as though Michigan, fearful of the result of the contest, if played at Detroit, has insisted on the change of place, in order to give the Wolverines the advantage of home support.

In view of the previous agreement entered into between Baird and the Minnesota board of athletics, the action of the former is unreasonable as well as unfair.

The opposition to the transfer is just as strong at Detroit as it is among the athletic authorities at the University of Minnesota. Tuesday night more than a hundred alumni of the University of Michigan gathered at the Russell house in Detroit, to protest against changing the game to Ann Arbor. Many of the alumni took the attitude that Baird's action was a direct slap at the men who have been working for years to develop university sentiment at Detroit.

The athletic field at Ann Arbor is small and inadequate. The limited seating capacity would cut down the gate receipts several thousands of dollars. But Michigan would rather lose $2000 than run the chances of losing the game.

Detroit would be much the more satisfactory place to play the game in many respects. Ann Arbor is only a small university town, and would have but poor accommodations for the immense crowd which will be in attendance. On the other hand, hotel-facilities at Detroit would be more than ample.

The success of their megaphone brigade has given the girls an impetus in the direction of independent organizations which nothing hitherto has done. One of their latest schemes is to organize a Glee Club and thus far it seems very feasible. Miss Helen Riggs is the principal agitator and has succeeded in getting a great many interested in the idea.

Dainty Volume of Verse

A short time ago mention was made in these columns of a new book of verse which was being written by a university student. The book, which is now on the press, is entitled "The Recompense," and contains, besides the romance of that name, a number of other poems. The work is the product of the pen of John R. Humphrey, and is destined to take a place along with other student poetry at the university. The volume will be out before the holidays in two editions, one in cloth, and one in leather. The work will be illustrated by J. MacMartin and Miss Ethel Palmer.

ALL EYES ON MICHIGAN

Coming Game With Michigan a Cinch For Neither Gophers Nor Wolverines

Contrary to the predictions of the alleged critics of the past season, the game which decides the championship of the west will come off at Ann Arbor(?) on Thanksgiving day. The decisive defeat of Wisconsin by the Gopher eleven has taken the western football world by surprise, and now those whose reputations as critics are at stake fear to prophecy definitely regarding the outcome of the big game.

Michigan during the past season has played her very best in every instance. Her team had reached a high state of development early in the year and if they can continue in this state without becoming stale they certainly are to be feared in the championship race. They have by almost perfect team work, by superior weight and by the excellent generalship of Capt. Weeks been able to run up tremendously high scores against their opponents. But it is a noticeable fact that nearly every team against which they have played has been a second rate aggregation, such as Ohio State or poor old Iowa. Wisconsin is about the only team of particular merit against which the Wolverines have pitted themselves and the result, 6 to 0, is rather disappointing to those who expected a sweeping victory for Michigan. Even in their game with Chicago they made but one touchdown on straight football and as the science of the play has now reached the point where scores no longer appeal to those who understand the game, there is but one conclusion to draw—Michigan's team may not be as strong as common reputation makes it.

Minnesota, unlike the Wolverines, began the season at a moderate pace. They regulated their playing according to the strength of their adversaries and winning their games by a small score, they have gradually developed into championship form. It is true they have lost one game, that with Nebraska, but as the Cornhuskers were able to defeat little Knox by only 7 points and the Gophers have taken such a brace since that game, Nebraska's championship claims will not be regarded at all. There are, then, but two teams to be considered as candidates for the western championship, Michigan and Minnesota.

The Gophers and the Wolverines will average about the same weight. Michigan has her speed and generalship to

Don't forget the band informal tomorrow night. The boys are making a noble effort to raise enough money to pay the expenses incurred on a long trip and they should be encouraged. The presence of this organization at the game will be a source of great inspiration to the representatives of the Gopher state. Come to the band informal and combine enjoyment with a sense of having done a plain duty.

Students at the university will hail with delight the prospect for a cheap rate to Michigan. A rate of $8 has already been secured. This is more than reasonable, but still there is talk of a still lower cut. If the gopher team has the support of a host of maroon and gold rooters on Thanksgiving day, the chances for a Minnesota victory will be materially increased. It therefore behooves every male or female student at the university to make a special effort to go to Michigan.

The Daily would suggest to the faculty that it would be an excellent plan to give the students of the various departments a holiday on Friday and Saturday of next week, as well as on Thanksgiving day. The reasons are obvious. In the first place there will be many who will go to the Michigan-Minnesota game at Ann Arbor, providing the two days following the day of the game are holidays. A great many students who otherwise would have gone, will stay away, rather than miss two days work at the university. Again there are those who would like to enjoy Thanksgiving at home. There are few, however, who will do so, if the faculty sees fit to continue college work the remainder of the week. These reasons would seem to be fair and adequate enough to call for favorable action on the part of the faculty.

Corn Huskers Not In It

A special to the Journal last evening says "Now that Ann Arbor is assured a real championship game the university rooters are overjoyed. If Michigan defeats the gophers on Thanksgiving day she will assert a claim as the best football eleven west of New England. On the other hand if Minnesota wins she will be conceded the honor while Michigan will claim second place.

The early season victory of Nebraska over Minnesota is not thought to affect the championship. Nebraska's poor showing against Knox and Kansas and the fact that she plays no other teams of consequence, causes her to receive little attention by the wolverine critics.

A similar case is cited when in '09 Princeton was conceded the championship after being defeated by Cornell, Harvard having only a tie game with Yale against her.

In the past the wolverines and gophers have divided honors about evenly. Five games have been played. Minnesota won in '02 and '03, while Michigan won in '05, '06 and '07. In the five games Michigan scored 66 points, and Minnesota scored 54.

As Others See Us

Minnesota defeated Wisconsin yesterday by the decisive score of 11 to 0 and thus showed herself a fit opponent for Michigan. Unquestionably the crowning game of the season will be that played at Bennett Park between Minnesota and Michigan on Thanksgiving Day for the championship of the west and the interest will probably more than equal that shown just before the Wisconsin game. —The Michigan Daily News.

Wisconsin's defeat by Minnesota last Saturday has increased the Gopher's chances for the football championship of the middle west. While nothing can be judged from the comparative scores made by Michigan and Minnesota against the Badgers, yet it is evident that the struggle with the Gophers Thanksgiving day will be the hardest one Michigan has had this season. The Wolverines seem, however to be the strongest aggregation. A muddy field, helped Minnesota in her victory. The chances of the Wolverines are also bettered by the game being played on their own grounds. Saturday's defeat is the first time Wisconsin has been beaten by more than six points since 1899.—The Daily Cardinal.

Nebraska now takes rank among the best of them. If she were an eastern school the papers would be full of her doings. The Chicago papers seem to be inclined to resent Nebraska's rise in the athletic world.—The Daily Nebraskan.

As long as such a spirit prevails at Minnesota as has been shown this year Grinnell will win few games with the University. With the spirit Minnesota has shown this year she will always rank among the strongest schools. The enthusiasm and support of the students has put Minnesota in the race for the championship. Grinnell has no right to be discouraged when defeated by a team with such support. But the lesson of clear grit when the team has taken a slump may be learned by all. —The Scarlet and Black.

rely on and Minnesota, while perhaps slightly inferior in these two respects, is rapidly coming to the front and can be relied upon to give Michigan the hardest game of the season. Yost relies upon "fooling" his adversaries. Such tactics, are all right against a green team and succeeded in defeating the Chicago aggregation which included seven freshmen; but with the experienced Gophers the case will be different. It will be straight foot-ball and judging from the real merits of the two teams the result is a toss-up.

Y. W. C. A.

The Wednesday Y. W. C. A. prayer meeting was addressed by Miss Comstock who spoke on the "Critical Spirit." Assuming that fault finding criticism was meant by this term, she said there were degrees of harmfulness in criticism, and divided critics into two classes:—1. The disappointed critic who becomes bitter and cynical, under-estimating her friends as she over-estimated them before. The cure for this girl is wider knowledge; she may learn some day that a character having faults and triumphing over them is better and nobler than the passive one. 2. The analytical girl, hasty in her judgment, who has yet to learn that to know all is to forgive all. The elements of truth in that which this girl sees makes her analysis dangerous. She must not let herself dwell upon the dark side of things, but remember and live up to Stevenson's articles of faith "Kindness and Cheerfulness."

PIANOS

The tendency in prices of all manufactured goods has for years been steadily downward. In most lines the quality has gone down with the price. The public has gone bargain mad.

We deplore the fact that this spirit has invaded the fine arts—and people are buying pictures, books and musical instruments at "so much a square yard." But there is no royal road to true culture. A highly artistic musical instrument cannot be made by the "hit or miss" process, and sold for a trifle. A good piano is the result of painstaking, intelligent effort and costs a fair price. It is cheaper at a fair price than cheap stuff is at a trifle.

THE NEW POWER PLANT

New Power and Lighting Plant Recently Completed Furnishes Light to Buildings

The new power plant located at the rear of the electrical building has begun operations. A few outside of those directly connected with the installation have realized the size of the undertaking now brought to a successful issue.

The Library, Pillsbury Hall, the chemistry, medical science, and all of the engineering buildings will receive their lights from this source. The engineering buildings will also receive all of their power from the same place.

The equipment is of the most modern construction obtainable. The battery of boilers is capable of generating 300 horse-power, and there is space for the location of several more boilers should there be a demand for more power in the future.

All water is automatically heated and cleared of scale forming matter by the Cochrane system.

Power is to be furnished for the dynamos by two engines. Of these one is of the Allfree type of 50 H. P. and the other is a 150 H. P. engine made by the Twin City Iron Works and donated to the College by that concern. The lighter of these two engines is now installed and has been running since the first of the week.

The system of counter shafting is of the best, being fitted with roller bearings and friction clutches.

Provision is made for an induced draft, when the 100 ft. stack is insufficient, by a separate engine and blower.

Having so good a plant at hand will enable the senior classes in Plant Operation an unequalled chance for the application of their studies.

Considering what a great improvement this plant will bring over the existing state of affairs both in efficiency and in the saving of expenses, it is a thing in which the University at large should take much pride.

The '05 Football team claim they are ready to meet the Freshmen medics at any time although it is not usual for a team to play two games with the same team during the same season.
