DULUTH--UMD seniors Paul Cocoanto, clarinetist, and Gerald Snyder, tuba, will be featured in a joint recital at 8:15 p.m., March 29 in the Humanities building.

Cocoanto will perform a Saint-Saena "Sonata, Opus 167," a Bernstein "Sonata," and a work by Arthur Benjamin, "From San Domingo," which was arranged for clarinet and piano by UMD music faculty member Robert E. Beverley. Mr. Cocoanto's accompanist will be Sara Koebke.

Snyder will play the "Fifth Trumpet Sonata" by Ernest Williams (transcribed for tuba) and a Vaughan Williams "Bass Tuba Concerto." Snyder's accompanist will be Melanie Roginski.

The public is invited at no charge.
