

DULUTH. . .Forty specially trained group leaders are set to guide more than 800 UMD freshmen expected on campus for Orientation-Registration Week, Sept. 19-24.

Under the leadership of Jean Magee of Duluth, each group leader will be in charge of about 20 freshmen as they move through a series of sessions on advisement, examinations on physical condition, speech and hearing, planning course work and group discussions.

Jan Gregory, orientation commissioner from Ironwood, Mich., said the group leaders will get final instructions on Sept. 18 following Parents' Day activities at Kirby Student Center.

Fall quarter classes begin at UMD September 26.

Group leaders from Duluth are Jean Askeland, Marge Bennett, Tom Gerardy, Barbara Brown, Carol Anderson, David D. Erickson, Kathy Dinan, Mary Erickson, Barbara Johnson, Bonnie Jennison, Ken Johnson, Judy McDonald, Suzanne Fredette, Judy Christopherson, Maren Kinney, Deanna Thomas, W. James Le Borious, Hal Segal, Marlene Ruth, Nick Whelihan, Bev Hanlon, Sue Hatch, Karen Hollingsworth, Beverly Huseby, Karen Johnson, Faythe Larson, Phyllis Letourneau, Bette Ann Lund, Judy McArton, Brian Isaacson, Evelyn Watson.

Others are Marla Hariu and Jackie Hariu, Ironwood, Mich.; Esther Korpi, Chisholm; Ceil Aakre, Grand Rapids; Rene' Carlson, Carlton; Sue Pye, Excelsior; Collette Ostrom, Robbinsdale; Caroline Hale, Detroit Lakes, and Sandy Gunderson, Moose Lake.