DULUTH--A holiday tournament at Quincy, Illinois and games with Montana University and Montana State highlight UMD's 1963-64 basketball schedule, released today.

The Quincy tourney, scheduled for December 27-29, will include the cream of the NAIA, featuring defending champion Pan American (Tex.) and their great star Luscious Jackson. Teams from seven states, with a combined record of 164 wins and 64 losses during the past season, will be represented.

The Montana schools will host the Bulldogs, December 20-21, with a trip to Duluth scheduled for the 1964-65 season.

Twenty-three games, including 10 at home, and the Quincy event make up the complete schedule. Northern Michigan, South Dakota State Wisconsin State (Superior) and a full round of games with MIAC opponents completes the slate. The Bulldogs open their season December 2 at Northern Michigan.

Coach Norm Olson will take four regulars, senior Gary Richards, juniors Mike Patterson and Roger Hanson and sophomore Bruce Ackland into the 1963-64 season. Only Harry Oden is missing from the 1962-63 starting five which spearheaded a 20-6 record and second place MIAC finish.
