Northern Alumni Pass Resolutions Condemning Dr. Williams as Coach

Northern Minnesota Alumni Association Refuses to Accept Doctor's "Excuses" STUDENTS SHOCKED BY CENSURE OF GOPHER COACH Wants Board of Control to Seek New Man Regardless of Salary

A resolution was yesterday passed by the Northern Minnesota Alumni Association at a meeting in Duluth, petitioning the Board of Athletic Control of the University of Minnesota not to re-new their contract with Dr. Williams, famous Minnesota football coach, on the grounds that, in their opinion, the Gopher coach is not and never will be able to "make good" in the production of a championship football team.

The only reason that the Maroon and Gold has not made a better showing on the gridiron, they assert, is because of the inefficiency of their coach, Dr. H. L. Williams. They further state that students and Alumni of the University have patiently accepted Dr. Williams' excuses each year, for the failure of the Minnesota team to win championship honors, but that Doctor Williams has invariably had material for splendid teams and has failed to utilize it on account of his incompetency. To replace Dr. Williams with the very best man obtainable at any cost is the purpose of their resolution, copies of which have been sent to the board of Athletic Control, to the Alumni Weekly and to the Minnesota Daily.

The action of the Alumni Association in condemning Dr. Williams, comes as a distinct shock to the student body of the University, which is a strong believer in the ability of its coach and an ardent supporter of his methods. Only Thursday at the football mass meeting, the words of Rooter-King Ralph Johnson when he introduced Dr. Williams as "not only the best coach Minnesota ever had, but absolutely the finest football coach the country has ever seen" were cheered with a roar that shook the Library building.

Not only is the University community behind Dr. Williams, but several well-known members of the Board of Control have given voice to their confidence in the man who has coached Minnesota's football team for more than twelve years. George Belden, a member of the Board, said:

"I made the motion to elect Coach Williams twelve or thirteen years ago and since then I have always thought

DR. HAGGART TO SPEAK

Will Address Prohibition League Monday Evening "Alcohol and Health," is to be the subject of an address by Dr. George D. Haggart at the next meeting of the Prohibition League, Monday evening, November 31, at 8 p. m., in room 308 Folwell Hall. J. E. Elder, traveling secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, will be present at the meeting, and is expected to give an informal talk following Dr. Haggart's remarks. The League announces that this meeting will be open to the University public in order to give all who desire an opportunity of hearing this very interesting and instructive lecturer.

Students Display Little Interest in Point System

Apathy of University Men Causes Delay in Voting on Proposed Measure Council Will Hold System Open To Suggestions From Interested Students

The men of the University have not, as yet, shown sufficient interest in the Point System to warrant the laying of that plan before the University at a general election, according to Horton Danfels, President of the All-University Council.

The Council had considered submitting the Point System along with the J. B. and Rooter-King candidates at the election Thursday; but, inasmuch as the matter had received so little attention from the men students, the election will be postponed to a time of more general interest.

Out of respect to the opposition and in order to make the system more democratic, the Council is holding the system open to all suggestions for modification in its details.

Lay Convention Plans

Student Volunteers Preparing For Big Convention at Kansas City January First

Plans and preparations are already being made by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. committees for the big international gathering of the Student Volunteer Movement which is to be held in Kansas City the first of January. These conventions are held only once in a student generation, the last one having been held four years ago at Rochester, N. Y. About four thousand delegates attended, including thirty-two from Minnesota. This year the attendance has been limited to five thousand students representing more than eight hundred colleges of North America.

The purpose is to present the worldwide development and problems of Christianity. The delegations will be made up of members of the faculty and the student body, including a small proportion of volunteers and others interested in religious work of any nature.

The University of Minnesota is allowed a representation of seventeen students and four or five faculty members. The committees are starting to select the delegates and are anxious to get in touch with interested students.

The three girls who survive in the incompleting tennis tournament, Catherine Cates, Orelle Oberg, and Margaret South, have announced their intention to finish the tournament in spite of the weather. Play will probably be resumed today.

Mob Riot Incited by Football Demonstration Ends in Two Arrests

Small Crowd of University Students Precipitate Pitched Battle With Police at Gayety Theatre MOB LARGELY OUTSIDE HOODLUMS AND HIGH SCHOOL BOYS F. L. Rafferty and Giles McHenry Arrested as Ring Leaders—Rafferty Denied Bail

A small portion of the crowd that assembled Thursday night to see the Minnesota football team off for Madison, together with a larger number of bystanders and high school men, became involved in a pitched battle with the police at the Gayety Theatre after leaving the station.

The crowd left the Milwaukee station, marching with the band to the corner of Nicollet Avenue and Sixth Street in zig-zag fashion, twenty abreast, sashetting from one side of the street to the other. At this corner, Ralph Johnson, Rooter-King, led the crowd in cheering and after the yells, advised that the fellows disperse without marching farther.

A few of the University students, however, not satisfied with the results of the evening's demonstration, started a movement toward the Gayety Theatre. By the time the theatre was reached the little group had attracted a veritable mob of hoodlums, bystanders and high school students, and, marching up to the entrance demanded admission. This management declined to give, and as a result those in the rear of the crowd started a pushing and surging, which those in the lead were unable to stop. These in front were forced ahead, compelled to fight on the theatre doorkeeper and house detective, both of whom were hurt in the fracas.

At this stage a riot call was sent to police headquarters, which responded with two wagon loads of policemen. The latter got into action immediately, swinging their night sticks with telling effect. The policemen, however, found that they were unable to cope successfully with the situation, and another call was sent in, about twenty firemen responding.

During the course of the fight a group of the police surrounded F. L. Rafferty, a student in the Pharmacy Department, who according to his own statement, was taking no part in the affair, merely standing on the curb with his hands in his pockets, but whom the officers charged with being the ring leader. Angered at being thus accused, he attempted to resist arrest, and was aided by the rest of the gang. At this point several of the officers pulled their guns, and succeeded in rushing Rafferty away to headquarters. There he was immediately placed in a cell without being given a chance to communicate with friends in order to obtain bail.

Yesterday morning Dean Wulling of the Pharmacy College and Professor E. E. Nicholson of the Student's Work Committee, hearing of the action of the authorities, called at Headquarters and arranged bail for Rafferty. Late in the morning it was secured. Dean Wulling also called upon Mayor Nye and entered a protest, demanding an investigation of the reasons why Rafferty was refused bail, or even communication with his friends, who might have secured it for him.

The other man arrested, Giles McHenry, who is not a university student, has been released on bail. The whole affair is being rigorously investigated.

OLD TIME GRIDIRON RIVALS STRUGGLE FOR VICTORY TODAY

MINNESOTA SQUAD, MINUS CAPTAIN, BUT KEYED TO HIGH PITCH AWAITS MOST CRUCIAL GAME OF YEAR AT CAMP RANDALL TODAY

Badger Sentiment Favors Minnesota But Team is Ready to Fight

Gopher Coach Puts Finishing Touches On Team's Instruction on Gridiron Tactics

The Minnesota-Wisconsin record for twenty-two years is as follows:

1891	26	12
1892	32	4
1893	40	6
1894	0	10
1895	14	6
1896	0	6
1897	0	39
1898	0	29
1899	0	19
1900	0	5
1901	6	18
1906	12	16
1907	No	Game
1908	17	17
1909	0	5
1910	34	6
1911	28	0
1912	6	6
Total	334	211

The above record was a source of hope to Gophers when they left for Madison Thursday evening, especially as the last reports from the Wisconsin camp favor Minnesota in every way. But the Badgers are fully alive to the situation, and if Wisconsin's fighting spirit can accomplish it, Minnesota will not win today.

The Wisconsin supporters too, realize that the big game of the season is at hand, and in spite of the fact that betting in Madison is at the odds of eight to ten in Minnesota's favor, and the "dope" is being circulated that the worst Minnesota can possibly get is a tie, the student body at Madison, as well as all her supporters, are fully determined to do all in their power to help the team "get" Minnesota.

Physically the Badgers are all in good condition, and they will outweigh Minnesota slightly in the line. They concluded their preliminary practice Thursday with a thirty-minute scrimmage on the campus of the Agricultural College, the only dry spot available. Yesterday the weather condition had improved and at present the field is in fine condition.

An advance sale of 15,000 tickets was reported yesterday by the Wisconsin Athletic authorities, but as the field has a capacity of several thousand more, the chances are that there will be room for everybody.

A mass meeting held last night crowded the large Armory to the doors long before eight o'clock. Late in the evening a howling mob of six hundred students, unable to restrain their enthusiasm any longer, held a torchlight parade down town, around the Capitol, and back to the University, which clearly demonstrated the presence of school spirit at Wisconsin.

The Minnesota team arrived in Milwaukee yesterday forenoon. Doctor Williams held a secret conference with the team, and went over the preliminary instructions in connection with the game today. Yesterday afternoon the team accompanied Dr. Williams to Hyde Park where the men underwent a snappy signal practice. The delegation registered at Hotel Pfister for yesterday, but spent the night in the special Pullman sleepers.

where every man on the team occupies a lower berth alone. They left Milwaukee at nine o'clock this morning and will arrive in Madison about 12:30. For the convenience of the visitors, the special train will be stationed on the tracks adjacent to Randall Field. At 1:30 the team will be called to the field quarters for the final instructions and a short workout.

Although Minnesota's backfield is composed of heavier and probably swifter men, the absence of Captain Aldworth at right end will no doubt be a serious handicap to the work of the team. Although Fournier is a very capable substitute and will no doubt make an excellent showing in the game today, the presence of Aldworth always adds a spirit of confidence and surety to the team, which goes a long way toward insuring a victory.

Needless to say, the enthusiasm and excitement at Minnesota in view of the coming game, is fully as great as that being exhibited by Madison. One of the most enthusiastic send-offs ever given a Minnesota team, was tendered the men Thursday evening. Thirty members of the band, and Ralph Johnson, the former Rooter-King, combined to lead the rosters, fully a thousand strong, who gathered to aid in the send-off.

The crowd gathered at Fourteenth Avenue and Sixth Street at seven o'clock and marched to the station, the rosters packed closely around the train and gave vent to their enthusiasm.

Fifteen minutes before the departure of the train, Ralph Johnson found a conspicuous place on top of one of the Gophers' coaches and directed the efforts of the rosters. All the Minnesota yells were given successively and all the players were called upon for speeches.

After the team left, the rosters enthusiastically marched up Washington Avenue to Nicollet, where a halt was made and "Minnesota" sung as it was never sung before. They then continued up Nicollet to Sixth Street and over Sixth to Hennepin, where they dispersed.

Last night at 8:30 o'clock four chartered cars, filled to the doors with Minnesota students and admirers, left the Milwaukee station, on a special train to Madison. The party included the sixty members of the band, and about three hundred students.

They will arrive in Madison this noon and leave tonight at 11 o'clock "after painting the town red" as expressed by one of the lucky enthusiasts.

As a preliminary to the big game, the annual dual cross country meet between Minnesota and Wisconsin will be run over a five-mile course. It had not been decided yesterday whether to stage the meet in the morning or in the afternoon. The chief objection to the latter plan, which includes a grand stand finish between the halves of the game, is the difficulty of keeping the goal line clear of spectators, as the regular track is filled up with boxes. In view of the fact that it is with the idea of letting the rosters

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

It was only last week that President Sparks of the Pennsylvania State College spoke in Chapel before a large student gathering on the distinction between college enthusiasm and college rowdiness, and yet within a week we have such demonstrations of how far that distinction can be forgotten by Minnesota students as to be alarming.

The reports regarding the affair in the lobby of the Gayety Theatre Thursday night are fortunately somewhat of an acquittal for the University men as a whole or even in considerable numbers. One report has it that no more than fifteen University students were involved actively in the riot that engaged several hundred persons. But however small may have been the student nucleus it is certainly to be regretted that our college name should be attached to acts of violence and disgrace such as were perpetrated on Thursday night. The University is a State institution and in the eyes of the State its students are expected to justify the expenditure made for it both in scholastic attainment and in acts of general conduct. Nothing is more disastrous to the good name of the institution than these totally unnecessary and degrading demonstrations of rowdiness.

The Gayety incident does not stand out alone. On the street cars after the riot, policemen were necessary to maintain order and prevent the destruction and thievery of the equipment of the cars. Students refused to pay their fares it is said. Electric bulbs were stolen and bell cords were cut.

On Wednesday night lumber valued at eighty dollars was deliberately taken from some sewer construction work near the campus and placed on the bonfire to help arouse Minnesota Spirit! It didn't cost the students anything, but it cost the contractor eighty dollars.

By what right, men of Minnesota, do you steal? By what right do you defy law and order? Does University enrollment mean license and exemption from all civil restraints? If the University man with all his manifold advantages cannot control himself, what may be looked for from others? These are cases where the Students' Council should take the most stringent sort of action. Expulsion is not too bad for the man who degrades his institution in the eyes of the State. If this action is beyond the council's power, higher authority may have to be appealed to, it may be that the men whose names are now connected with these affairs are not the guilty parties. Some of them assert that they are not. The investigation should be rigid and the punishment severe.

see the team in action that the meet was arranged, it is probable that the afternoon plan will be adopted.

Coach Jones of Wisconsin feels confident of a victory in this meet, and so he will keep out some of his veterans in order to give the new men a chance. White, the individual star, with whom it was hoped that Watson would compete, will possibly be kept out for this reason. The Wisconsin team consists of Capt. Bresnahan, Harvey, Merrill, Perry, Becker, and McHugh, in case White does not run. The Minnesota team includes Watson, Wuest, Rapacz, Hartney and Montgomery.

The celebration which has been arranged for this afternoon in Chapel will be the one best bet for the stay-at-homes. It is expected that the Chapel will be crowded before 1:30 o'clock when the returns will begin. Although the game does not begin until 2 o'clock, the preliminary returns will concern weather conditions, Minnesota's chances for a victory, the condition and lineup of both teams and other news of interest to Minnesota admirers.

A special field will be arranged on the stage, on which the details of the game will be presented. The committee in charge of the affair has secured the football used in the Minnesota-Wisconsin game last year for this purpose, which will be shown with the score 14-0 painted on the side of it. In connection with this ball, another ball will be exhibited upon which it is hoped an entirely different score will be posted.

Only students of the University will be admitted to the demonstration until 1:30 when the doors will be opened to outsiders. Sections will also be reserved for the ladies until 1:30 only. "Zeke," a familiar figure on the campus, will manipulate the football; a regular telegrapher from the Western Union Company will take charge of the receiver and Henry Doermann will wield the megaphone.

Besides the regular program, all the yells and songs will be given, and for this reason it is especially desired that not all of Minnesota school spirit and enthusiasm is in Madison.

The second popular concert of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra's current season will take place in the Auditorium, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 2, beginning promptly at 3:30 o'clock. Local public interest, always lively where the orchestra is concerned, is especially centered in regard to this concert upon the assisting soloist, Cordelia Lee. Miss Lee, who has gained world-wide recognition as a violinist, is a Northwestern girl, born in Aberdeen, S. D., and a former pupil of Heinrich Hoever, the well-known violin teacher of this city. Following her European studies under several famous masters she made foreign concert tours with a success that was really sensational, when one considers the conservative attitude of old world critics and audiences towards new world artists.

The following is the program for Sunday, Nov. 2. Soloist, Cordelia Lee, Violinist. 1. Hungarian March "Rakoczy" from "The Damnation of Faust," Berlioz. 2. Overture to Massanello, Auber. 3. Suite, "Scenes Historiques," Sibelius. a. In the Style of an Overture.

Change Vesper Service Hour

Sunday Religious Service Will Be Held Hereafter at 5 p. m.—Dr. Powell Speaks Tomorrow

Dr. John Walker Powell will preach on "Personality and Efficiency" at the University Vesper service tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock in Chapel.

The Vesper service hour has been changed from four-thirty to five o'clock in order to suit the convenience of many who were otherwise engaged on Sunday afternoons at the earlier hour. The change came as the result of a request on the part of a number of interested students.

A Committee of one hundred men and women has recently been organized to promote the interests of the vesper service. The committee represents every organization on the campus as well as a large company of independent members.

To Lecture on Japan

Colonel C. H. French Will Deliver Illustrated Lecture Before Students for Charity

Saturday evening November 1, Col. C. H. French will present a magnificently illustrated lecture on Japan, "the most wonderful empire in the world," at the First Baptist church, Tenth Street and Harmon Place. The address will be an imaginary journey through scenes of delight among natural wonders of the Nipponese Empire and views of the curiosities in homes and modes of life which its inhabitants display.

No fee will be charged for admittance but a silver collection will be received that is to be entirely devoted to charitable purposes. The lecture is for the University students and offers an opportunity to gain a very exact and picturesque portrayal of a country that is a big factor in the progress of the world.

Will Report Soil Survey

Professor Frank Leverett and Professor F. W. Sardisan will give their report of the Soil Survey of Northern Minnesota next Tuesday night at the Meeting of the University Academy of Science in the Director's room of the Public Library building.

To Get Back Into the Conference Michigan Must Give Up—1. Local control of athletics to Conference representatives. This rests upon the principle that nine great western universities have found it necessary to combine in protecting amateur college sports, instead of leaving this question, as has Michigan to the jurisdiction of single, isolated governing boards.

2. Competition of freshmen teams with outside institutions.

3. Training table, i. e., payment of excess over $4.00 per week by Athletic Association.

4. Alumni and student control for, at least, a veto power vested somewhere in the faculty.

5. Start preliminary training on September 20, rather than two weeks before the opening of the university session.

6. Change the selection of the coaches from the Board in Control of Athletics to the appointment upon the recommendation of the President or the faculty. The Michigan coaches, however, have never been appointed without the sanction of the President.

Michigan Can Go Back Into the Conference and Have—1. Eastern relations, in track, baseball and football.

2. A seven game football schedule, with what universities she pleases.

3. Twelve baseball games with Conference teams and with no limit on number of outside games.

4. The present coaches and the present coaching system.

5. A definite standing in athletics at the end of the session.

A championship is always possible.

6. Competition with rivals that are

The newest things first

YOUNG men consider this their own particular store; they know we're "on the job" every minute to keep ahead of their needs and demands.

The young idea holds the stage nowadays; we have the world-wide organization that makes it easy to always be first with the best and latest, the most daring and original things young men wear.

There is a quotation: "Youth will be served;" we're here to do that—to the utmost.

M-L-R "L System" Clothes For College Men

are one of our biggest features for young men. Our famous second floor college room is an immense section entirely given over to young men's suits and overcoats. There's nothing just like it in the world; everything you see there is put up to make a strong bit with the young fellows—and it does.

Suits and overcoats in thousands of the newest, smartest fabrics—full of color, gay and exhilarating. These patterns show more dash and "ginger" than ever before. No use trying to name all the different kinds of materials; you must see them yourself.

Most of the suits are cut along English lines; there's nothing anywhere near so popular this year; a universal favorite with young men. Close-fitting lines, natural shoulders, unpadding front with high cut vest, straight line trousers. Overcoats all have swing, rakish, free lines; a sort of careless dash. Come here if you want to see these fashions shown correctly, and in a great variety. Suits and overcoats,
