Duluth -- Baccalaureate services for the UMD Class of 1967 will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday, June 4 in the Physical Education building.

UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland will preside at the services and will introduce the speaker, the Rev. Father Sarantos Serviou, adviser to the Eastern Orthodox Student Fellowship at UMD. The Rev. Serviou will address the seniors on the topic "Entering New Horizons."

The invocation will be given by Rabbi Sylvan Kamens, adviser, UMD Hillel Student Association. The Benediction will be presented by the Rev. Graden Grobe, clergy adviser, UMD Intervarsity Christian Fellowship.

Organ preludes will be presented by Donald H. Andrews, UMD instructor in music. The University Choir under the direction of Allen Downs, asst. prof. of music, will present several selections.

Members of the Council of Student Religious Organizations will serve as ushers for the service.
