Duluth--- The ninth annual "Salute to UMD" television show will be broadcast by KDAL-TV at 12:30 p.m. Sunday (Dec. 29).

Sports Director Marsh Nelson will emcee the half-hour telecast sponsored again by Otis, Magie, Gustafson Insurance Co., Duluth.

A highlight of the show will be a tribute to Lloyd W. Peterson, UMD's director of athletics who retires next spring. Slides of some of the memorable events in Peterson's athletic career will be shown.

Provost Raymond W. Darland will bring viewers up to date on UMD's development during the past year and plans for future progress, particularly in 1969.

Neil Ladsten, Littlefork-Big Falls, Minn., will discuss a student's view of athletics.

Nelson also will review the activities of UMD athletic teams, their records to date and future prospects.
