Duluth--Dr. Holger R. Stub, an associate professor of sociology, has resigned his UMD post to accept a position in the sociology department of Philadelphia's Temple University.

Jay C. Norris, an instructor in English, also is leaving to teach at LaCrosse (Wis.) State College. Norris, a graduate of the University of Nebraska and UCLA, has been at UMD since 1957.

Dr. Stub is presently co-authoring a population textbook and plans a change to beauracracy and large-scale organizations research at Temple.

Stub arrived at UMD in 1958 after teaching positions at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and LaCrosse (Wis.) State College.
