AVC Pamphlets Blast Upton Close

A delegation of the American Veterans committee, composed partially of the campus AVC chapter, passed out pamphlets attacking Upton Close, radio commentator, as being pro-fascist before his speech yesterday at the Minneapolis auditorium.

AVC Tuesday protested an invitation extended to Close to speak before the state legislature yesterday; Close did speak at a meeting of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, however.

Close charged AVC with being "a sort of terroristic organization which engages in stabbing reputations and assassinating character." He denied vigorously that he is or ever has been anti-labor, anti-Semitic or pro-Fascist.

WSSF Man Here To Aid Chest Drive

Robert V. Fairgraves, regional secretary of the World Students Service fund, will arrive on campus from Chicago this morning to help with the organization of the Campus Chest drive, Feb. 3 through 7. He will be here from 10 to 15 days.

The Campus Chest, which was organized in 1942, regulates the solicitation on campus of funds for all charitable organizations. It is a permanent organization sponsored by the All-University council.

To determine where students want their donations sent, the Campus Chest board of directors sponsored a poll in The Daily last November listing charitable organizations to which the money might be given. Student opinion placed scholarships for high school students as first choice for the distribution of funds.

Fun and Facts

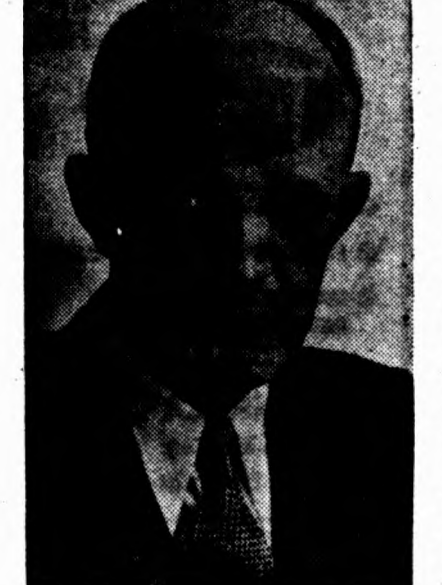

Arnaldo Libanti, exchange student from Italy, will speak at a meeting of freshman fun and facts at noon today in the YMCA Great hall. All freshmen may attend and bring their bag lunches.

Journalists to Talk On Press Freedom

"Freedom of International Communication" will be the topic of a panel discussion at Convocation at 11 a.m. today in Northrop auditorium.

Carroll Binder, editorial page editor of the Minneapolis Morning Tribune, and Herbert L. Lewis, editorial director of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, each with many years of experience in handling foreign news, will be the local members of the panel.

The other two men on the four-man panel are Howard Pierce Davis, former foreign correspondent for the Boston Transcript, and Thom A. B. Ditton, free lance war correspondent and military analyst.

Howard Pierce Davis

Davis has covered most of the important news stories from Europe in the past 20 years and was present in the Braun house in Munich on the occasion that Hitler predicted his rise to power.

Ditton served as an officer in the British army in India, Africa and China, flew with the RAF and was officer in the Canadian army. As free lance correspondent he covered the battle of the Atlantic, went on the first bombing missions over Germany and went ashore over the Dieppe raid.

Moderator for the discussion will be Russell Potter, director of Columbia University's institute of arts and sciences and director of its lecture program for the past 15 years.

Political Action Must Be Cleared Through LAC

Campus organizations must not go to the state legislature on political issues without first clearing any such action through the Legislative Action Committee. This action was taken at an LAC meeting yesterday in order to safeguard University requests for appropriations.

The meeting was called partly because of the American Veterans committee's action Tuesday in protesting a legislature invitation extended to Upton Close, radio commentator accused of having fascist tendencies.

According to Karol Kaiser, LAC chairman, AVC apparently did no harm to hopes for University requests for appropriations, but such action might have jeopardized them.

"We don't like to have any organization set itself up as a reviewing board of campus organizations' actions," Edmund G. Williamson, dean of students, said, "But the next few months are extremely crucial ones if the University is to get its requested appropriations."

The committee agreed that review would be necessary only when action involves the state legislature.

Bruce Lindahl, AVC chairman, announced that in the future any contemplated action on political issues would be cleared through LAC 24 hours in advance.

Foresters Throw Down Gauntlet

A challenge from Ag campus to the Engineers went out today as a clincher to establish the Forester's reputation as true descendants of mighty Paul Bunyan and inheritors of his fabled strength.

The Engineers, proud of their numbers on campus, have been challenged by the Foresters to a tug-of-war to be held Saturday as part of the field events marking the annual celebration of Foresters day.

Foresters roamed Ag campus with scraggly beards on their jutting chins. They were bosses for a week and had assumed full control of all activities in preparation for the yearly celebration.

A dance in the Union main ballroom, five miles from the home of the bearded men with the hobnailed boots, was set for 9 p.m. to midnight Friday with Harry Given providing the music. Tickets will be $2 a couple.

Saturday, events start with a bean feed in the Ag cafeteria, followed by a coronation ceremony for the Uncle, Daughter and Son of Paul who will be elected by vote of all Foresters this week.

Field events including snow-shoe races, pole-climbing, wood chopping and the inevitable tug-of-war will be held on the Ag athletic field at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

But whatever else was clear after the developments this week, the Ag campus was loaded for bear.

Panhellenic Awards

Applications for five $50 scholarships offered by Panhellenic council can be filled out today through Jan. 24 in 209 Eddy hall. Any coed is eligible, but accumulative average grades and campus activities will be considered. Awards will be given at the regional Panhellenic convention Jan. 27.

Governor, University Differ On Maintenance Increase

Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl yesterday recommended to the state legislature that $5 million be authorized in the next biennium for new buildings "to relieve the overcrowded conditions at the University of Minnesota." He also asked for an increase of $8,590,000 for maintenance funds for the University and other state educational institutions.

The recommended $5 million is $10,534,526 less than was asked for in the University's appropriations request of Oct. 29, 1946. A breakdown of the governor's recommendation for a maintenance increase of $8,590,000 showed $4,350,000 would be available for University use. The University had asked for a biennial increase of $5,606,000.

Minnesotans Show Apathy Toward '67'

Minnesota citizens are favorably impressed, if impressed at all, by the Committee of '67's drive for popular backing of the University's appropriations request.

Reports from all the districts represented at a meeting yesterday give a comprehensive picture of Minnesotans' reaction to the letters and statements of committee members.

People who showed any interest at all were at least sympathetic, but the greatest problem encountered has been indifference, nearly all members agreed. The committee plans to intensify its program by more personal contacts with home town editors and officials.

Starting from scratch, the committee, under the wing of the legislative action committee, recruited students from each of the 67 legislative districts. These students then carried the fight back to their home stomping grounds, talked to parents, friends and state representatives and senators.

Some sections of the state were not interested in the delegates' stories but committee members feel that these sections could be aroused if they were shown how the appropriations will benefit them.

Writers Club Meeting

University Writers club will meet for manuscript criticism at 7:30 p.m. today in 345 Union. All students may attend.

Snow Week Royalty To Be Chosen Saturday

Only 52 women's and 176 men's Snow train tickets were left on hand when the ticket office closed at 4:30 p.m. yesterday, as the Snow week committee rushed into the final phase of preparation for on campus and Duluth activities. Sales will open today at 1:30 p.m. in the Union ticket office.

Proceeds from 1,650 buttons sales were turned in to the office yesterday for an average of 825 for the two-day-old sale. Students who plan to attend any of the on campus activities which charge admission must have a button to present when buying tickets.

Button bearers will be admitted free to the regular Union twilight dances on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of Snow week.

Snow week gets under way Saturday afternoon with the king and queen elimination at University Golf course where candidates for the royal couple will compete on the basis of winter athletic ability.

The king will be presented by Cedric Adams at a dance from 9 p.m. to midnight that night in the Union. The 10 queen finalists will reign jointly with the king until the queen is chosen Thursday.

All queen candidates will be taken for a ride on the mall Monday afternoon when their sponsors will tow them on toboggans for the dog sled race. That night, musical groups ranging from trios to octettes will compete in a song fest in the Union main ballroom.

Students and faculty members will match brawn instead of brain for a tug-of-war Tuesday afternoon on the mall. Tickets for the Tuesday

The governor prescribed that the maintenance increase be taken out of the general revenue fund and that the building appropriation be financed through borrowing. He said the 2 1/2-mill tax on state property now being levied for the general revenue fund could be set aside to finance the borrowing and "will make possible repayment of the bonds and interest over a period of years."

Two solutions with regard to University enrollment increases were presented by Gov. Youngdahl:

Limit the enrollment. Make money available so that a creditable job can be done in taking care of not only the veteran but also all other students.

Regarding the first plan, Youngdahl said, "I am sure you all will agree with me that such a plan would be untenable in a democracy."

"In the research laboratories of today," he said, "the study and experiments are carried on which determine science's contribution to a better world of tomorrow. I, therefore, hope that you give very serious consideration to my recommendations for the special University appropriations."

"In considering the total building needs of the state," he continued, "the special emergency of the University must be recognized. Any appraisal of long-range building needs, or the means to meet them, is difficult at this time—but

Youngdahl ...

It is my considered judgment that immediate building assistance in an appropriation amount of $5 million is justified completely for the University."

An additional appropriation for construction of the Mayo Memorial, to be built on campus, was asked in view of the increased cost of building materials. The legislature, in the last biennium, approved construction of such a building.

The amount to be approved by the legislature for the veterans' bonus only can be arrived at by the legislators and after an examination of the needs of the schools, hospitals and other services, Youngdahl said. Therefore, he added, there was no specific recommendation made in the budget.

He said that some special revenue, aside from the usual sources, will be needed in any event to make possible the payment of the bonus.

Seniors Will Investigate Registration

Possibility that seniors be permitted to register for courses before other students to prevent their graduation being held up by an essential course block will be investigated by a Senior cabinet committee headed by Richard Bye, University college senior.

In previous quarters, some seniors reportedly have not been able to take a required course because a class already was filled by undergraduate students.

The matter had been discussed by the cabinet before but was laid aside last quarter. Since approval of all colleges except the Institute of Technology has been obtained, it has been suggested that the problem be referred to the Tech commission.

The next cabinet meeting will be a banquet meeting at 5:45 p.m. Wednesday in 320 Union. At this time Jean Hopson will report on plans for the senior prom, tentatively set for April 18.

Hodgins Back on Ice; Gophers Leave Today

By Hy Zimmerman

Billy Hodgins, Gopher right wing from Taconite, disentangled himself from a scholastic spider web yesterday and will make the trip to Michigan.

He will be among the 16-man Minnesota hockey phalanx who tonight will haul luggage aboard the 11 p.m. train for Ann Arbor where the Maroon and Gold opens a two-game series with Michigan Friday night.

Present plans call for Bill to team with Bob Harris and Jerry Lindegard instead of returning to his old line. Coach Larry Armstrong does not want to disrupt his other combinations and will leave the DePaul-Remole-Meyer and Frick-Fleming-Klatt combinations intact.

In the net, of course, will be Mr. Stop, Tommy Karakas. And Tommy will be out to stretch a record. Back in the 1942-43 season, while at Illinois, the sultan of saves cooked up four goose-egg omelettes against the Wolverines. He shut them out four times in a row.

Michigan Coach Vic Heyliger, aware of this quadruple zeroing, will start a line containing his leading scorer of last year, Gordon MacMillan of Moose Jaw, Sask. MacMillan's last season counting summed up to 56 points on 29 goals and 27 aids.

Further to lethalyze this line, MacMillan has his two high school mates, Lyle Phillips and Dick Starrak, flanking him on the wings. The trio has four years of combination play behind it.

The Gopher defense will have to step lively against these Karakas-bound forwards so last night's Arena drill was given over mainly to proper behavior behind the defensive blue line. Alley Opsahl, Dick Roberts, Jack O'Brien and Dennie Bergman got a rigid workout in clearing the puck from the score zone.

The defense being a sore spot on the club, Armstrong has been doing some shopping down at the Bee team wickiup. He's given them a good inspection and now there is a burly blue liner skating through Larry's mind. Although refusing to name the prospect, the varsity coach says he'll promote him when the team returns from Michigan, Monday.

'Mac' Has the 'Influence'

Dick Tracy may have his "influence" but so does Dave MacMillan in scrappy Louie Brewster. Lou wears contact lenses, as does the comic strip character, and influences his teammates as well as befuddling his opponents. He even might be called the "steadying influence" on the Gopher quintet.

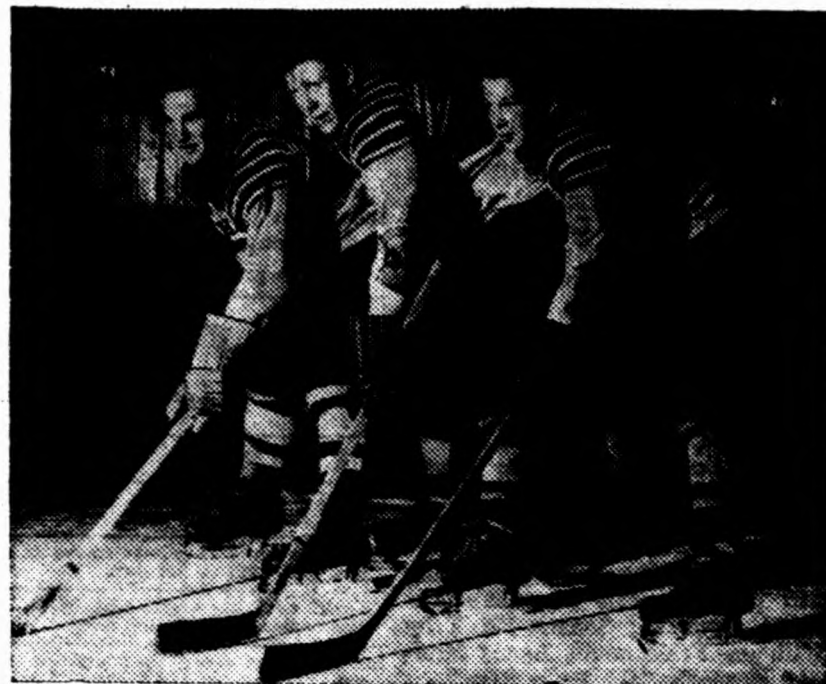

Back in '41 Brewster was a member of the Wahpeton, N.D. high school basketball team which won the state tournament and was called the finest high school team ever to play in that state.

From Wahpeton, Louie came to Minnesota where he won a letter in basketball as a sophomore in 1943. After making Uncle Sam's first team for a couple of years, Louie returned to Gophertown and served as reserve guard on last year's basketball team.

Brewster, 5-foot, 11-inch, 23-year-old senior, has flipped in 95 points for the Gophers this year.

Sports Heads to Meet

All the various student sports activity heads are asked to attend a meeting at 4 p.m. today in room 203 Cook.

Wrestlers in Meet Saturday

The Iowa State wrestling match Saturday following the Michigan State basketball game will be the last home appearance for the Gopher matmen until Feb. 15. During the month-long road jaunt Dave Bartelma will take his men through eight dual meets, including a three-game slate in Colorado.

On the journey they will face three of the four Big Nine teams that they must tangle with over conference meet. Keeping this in mind, Bartelma is grooming the Cyclone meet Saturday.

Iowa State will field a comparatively unknown squad. In their only match to date the Cyclones dropped a decision to a star-studded Cornell of Iowa team. A better slant on the men from Ames can be gained after their Friday night tussle with Carleton who the Gophers whitewashed, 34-0.

Heavyweight Glen Brand, Dick Ditsworth, 155 pounds, and Pat Bush, 165 pounds, boast the biggest guns that the Bartelma men must face. Both Brand and Ditsworth copped third place honors in the National intercollegiate meet.

In preparation Bartelma has been sending his charges through workouts in which everybody has been subject to challenge. With battle time approaching, the lightweight, 155-pound and 121-pound weight divisions still loom as anybody's position.

The top battle in all divisions is the scramble for the 175-pound assignment in which nine mixers, topped by Dick Fenton, Bernie Lindquist and Merritt Jones, are vying for the top position.

With the gradual sifting out of the leading grapplers into the top bracket Bartelma stated that he would form a "B" squad. The team eventually will get its start after Bartelma chooses his first traveling squad.

Undergraduate 'M' Men to Form Club Tomorrow

The formation of an undergraduate "M" club will begin to take definite shape at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Union men's lounge with the holding of an organizational meeting. All of the 120 letter-winners on campus in the 10 varsity sports are urged to attend.

Wells Wright, president of the graduate "M" club will speak. Aims and purposes of the club will be decided on and a committee appointed to draw up a set of by-laws and to select a slate of officer candidates.

At the present Pug Lund is acting as chairman of the "M" club's undergraduate committee and coordinator between his organization and the embryo undergraduate group.

Bob Sandberg has been chosen temporary chairman of the undergraduate "M" club committee. He

Cage Defense Average Drops

By Bill Smith

Iowa's 77 points in last Monday's game at Iowa City must have had something to do with the trend that Minnesota's basketball drills took yesterday.

Coach Dave MacMillan devoted almost the entire afternoon to working on the Gopher defense which, until Monday, had proved almost airtight. There is the consideration, of course, that no one could do much to stop long shots such as Iowa's Herb Wilkinson was sinking or the trick shots for which Murray Weir was responsible.

But, nevertheless, the Gophers devoted the early afternoon to fatiguing two-on-one exercises and then finished the afternoon with the MacMillan first string taking the defense against Max Mohr's second stringers.

Iowa, incidentally, is the only club besides Washington to crack 60 against the Gophers, and all three games were run-run affairs with defense taking a back-seat.

The Gopher defensive average, best in the conference until the Iowa scramble, jumped from 36 to 46 Monday. Their offensive average also went up, from 41 to 47.

Already installed as heavy favorites over Michigan State's invading Spartans in Saturday's nonconference clash, MacMillan's charges may find the visitors rougher than expected.

Coach Ben Van Alstyne's cagers come to Minneapolis with the same game record as the host team, 666, earned on the basis of six wins in nine starts as opposed to Minnesota's eight in 12.

In addition, the Spartans are out to make it two in a row over the Maroon and Gold whom they defeated in overtime 50-48 at East Lansing last season. Saturday's mix rates as the rubber game between the two clubs as Minnesota holds a 46-32 decision, earned here in 1943.

WAA CORNER

Tryouts for the WAA tennis club will be held at 4:45-5:30 p.m. today and 4-4:45 p.m. tomorrow in the field house of Norris gymnasium. Coeds are requested to bring activity costume, tennis racquet and health rating.

BADMINTON TOURNAMENT

All girls interested in entering the WAA badminton singles tournament may sign up at the Union WAA bulletin board or at Norris gymnasium between tomorrow and next Friday. The tournament will be of the elimination consolation type, whereby each entrant plays at least two matches even though she loses to her first opponent.

At the time of the first match, entrants must present a number one health rating. First round play will begin Jan. 27 with preliminary practice sessions scheduled for 4:45-5:30 p.m. tomorrow and Jan. 23 and Jan. 24 at 4-5 p.m. in the women's field house, room 60. Entrance deadline is Jan. 24. For further information or questions call Eleanor Walsh, Gl. 2434.

Berglund's 27 Counters Wallop LSA

By Jim Anderson

Big Kerm Berglund, scoring more points than the entire Lutheran Students A team, last night paced the Strays to a 39-23 win in the second day of the winter intramural basketball tourney.

Berglund, rolling in 27 counters in machine gun fashion, penetrated the nets for a dozen markers in the first half and added 17 more in the third and fourth quarters.

Legion Post 528 displayed power in trouncing the Mortuary Science club, 45-13. From the tipoff the undertakers never had a chance, the southtown legionnaires opening up the finest balanced scoring machine seen yet in the tournament.

In a game that was billed as the top attraction of the night, the Anoka D.C. five took a 41-23 licking from the Abbotts. Lenny Byrnes of the Abbotts caught fire and dunked in six sizzling fielders combined with three gift tosses for a 15-point total.

The night's only overtime contest saw the Ventura Bombers edging the M & M club, 35-33, in a rough-and-tumble, Texas style wrestling match. The referee had all he could do to hold down a fist fighting group of student basketballers.

A feature Pioneer hall game found House III thumping House IV to a 37-11 tune. House III's ace scorer, Rye, paced his teammates with 14 counters.

The Rockets' one-man team, Don Wohlrahe, counted 19 points in his team's 31-14 victory over the Pioneers.

Roundup of scores: Northside Wheels 28, Miners 20; House I 19, House II 16; House VI 16, House V 15; Long Shots 33, Maple Leafs 23; Flyers 13, Minnesota Band 11; Globe Trotters 30, Newman club 15; R. G. Shufflers 25, Pi Iota Pipers 17; B-24's 9, Cats 0 (forfeit); Duluthians 20, Lutheran Students B 15; Flub Dubs 20, Odd Fellows 18; Stags 38, 405 Club 25; Hodags 25, Cambridge 19; Rockets 11, Minutemen 0 (forfeit); The X's 32, Phalanx 11.
