

Office of the Provost
Vol. 33, No. 5
Newsletter: 726-7110

University of Minnesota, Duluth
UMD News Service
October 8, 1981

MINNESOTA'S GOVERNORS: AN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE How has Minnesota's ethnic diversity aided or impeded the state's progress? This question will be addressed in Duluth Wednesday evening (Oct. 14) in a discussion featuring former Governor Harold LeVander. The Duluth program is one of a series to be held in seven Minnesota cities under the general topic "Perspectives From Our Past: Fifty Years of Minnesota Governors." The discussion program, which is free and open to the public, will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Home Economics 80.

SCHAUER RECEIVES AWARD Rudolph I. Schauer, professor of art and well-known watercolorist at UMD, has been named a lifetime signature member of the Midwest Watercolor Society. He was awarded the distinction by having his paintings accepted and shown in three national juried exhibitions of the Midwest society and having five of his recent paintings reviewed by a panel of distinguished judges for acceptance to the professional society.

TAKE A PEEK AT THE CAMPUS Area high school students and their parents are being invited to visit UMD Thursday and Friday (Oct. 15-16) during their days off from school because of the Minnesota Education Association's annual meeting, UMD's Admissions office has announced. "UMD Campus Preview '82" will consist of information sessions and campus tours during the morning and afternoon. Kirby Ballroom will be used as a headquarters for visitors. For information, contact the Admissions Office, 7171.

ALUMNI PHONE-A-THON BEGINS OCT. 12 Phones will be ringing in the homes of UMD alumni around the nation this fall as part of UMD's first full-scale alumni phone campaign. A team of 10 UMD students will call more than 14,000 alumni in a 28-night period beginning Oct. 12, asking for tax-deductible contributions to UMD.

"NUTCRACKER SUITE" BUS TRIP PLANNED A bus trip to see the "Nutcracker Suite" performed by the Minnesota Dance Theatre on Dec. 12 at Northrop Auditorium in Minneapolis is being planned by the Continuing Education and Extension (CEE) program. The performance will be at 3 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 12. The bus will leave UMD at 9:30 a.m. and will return to campus around 10:30 p.m. the same night. The bus will stop for lunch and dinner. Cost for the trip is $25 which includes the bus trip and the theatre ticket. Full payment is due by Nov. 30. A limited number of seats are available for this trip so the deadline to register is Oct. 9. To register, call CEE, 8113.

UNITED WAY DRIVE CONTINUES The United Way is united because it represents the broadest interests of the community and permits you to support 33 local agencies with one contribution. If you are looking for an excuse not to give, you might be able to find an agency on the list which you question. However, you will find more than 30 others which deserve your wholehearted support. (Kudos to the English Department...in just three days, members pledged $590 for the United Way campaign.)

LAW SCHOOL MEETINGS SET FOR CAMPUS Meetings with representatives from law schools in the state and nearby North Dakota have been set. The representative from William Mitchell Law School in St. Paul will be on campus Wednesday (Oct. 14). A general meeting is scheduled for 11 a.m. in Kirby 333. Individual appointments may be made for anytime between 1-3:30 p.m. in Kirby 301. The representative from the University of North Dakota Law School in Grand Forks will be on campus Wednesday, Oct. 21, at the same meeting times and room. The representative from the University of Minnesota Law School in Minneapolis will be on campus Wednesday, Oct. 28 at the same meeting times and rooms. Appointments may be arranged by calling the political science department office in Home Economics 242, 7534. For more information, contact Dale Olsen (8164), Craig Grau (8281) or Ellis Livingston (7544).

FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICERS TEST The written examination for Foreign Service Officers will be given Dec. 5 at Fort Snelling in St. Paul and in St. Cloud. Brochures and applications to take the examination are available in the Counseling, Career Development and Placement Office (CCDP). The federal departments of State and Commerce and the International Communication Agency are particularly interested in increasing the number of women and minority group members as foreign service officers, foreign commercial service officers and foreign service information officers. Applications for the examination must be received by the Educational Testing Service no later than October 23. For information, contact CCDP, 7985.

NEW LIBRARY HOURS Due to University retrenchment, the UMD Library will be closed Saturday mornings beginning Oct. 10, but open during regular hours the rest of the week. The Library is open from 7:45 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday; 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday; 1-5 p.m. on Saturday; and 1-11 p.m. on Sunday.

LAST CALL FOR HOCKEY PARTY Don't forget, UMD's Alumni Association will host an informal hockey reception Sat., Oct. 17, at the Lantern Supper Club in Eveleth immediately following the UMD-Michigan Tech Hall of Fame hockey game in Eveleth's Hippodrome. Tickets for the 7 p.m. hockey game are available in advance at the Hockey Hall of Fame in Eveleth and at the UMD Ticket Office. Tickets also will be available at the Hippodrome the night of the game. No tickets or reservations are necessary for the reception. For information, call Darryl Sczepanski, alumni director, 8197.

UMD WEEKLY CALENDAR OF EVENTS October 11-17

SUNDAY, Oct. 11 -- "Space Shuttle: Pioneer of the New Frontier," free public program, Marshall W. Alworth Planetarium, 3 p.m.

MONDAY, Oct. 12 -- Women's Coordinating Committee: "Women's Health (new method of birth control, the cervical cap)," Jan Gerber, nurse practitioner, Nancy Massey, director, Duluth Community Health Center, Kirby Student Center 355-57, noon; Computer Center Seminar: "1977 FORTRAN," Marshall W. Alworth Hall 191, 3 p.m.; Coffeehouse Concert: James Hersch, Bull Pub, 7 p.m.

TUESDAY, Oct. 13 -- Coffeehouse Concert: James Hersch, Bull Pub, 7 p.m.

THURSDAY, Oct. 15 -- "Connection" film series: "Thunder in the Skies," Library 144A, noon; Computer Center Seminar: "1977 FORTRAN," Marshall W. Alworth Hall 191, 3 p.m.; Geology Seminar: "Petroleum Exploration," N.R. Schuler, Senior Exploration Geophysicist, Life Science 175, 3:30 p.m.; UMD Theatre presents: "Grease," Marshall Performing Arts Center, 8 p.m.

FRIDAY, Oct. 16 -- Men's Hockey: UMD vs. Michigan Tech, Duluth Arena, 7:30 p.m.; Chemistry Seminar: "Pentachlorophenol--An Overview," Paula Johnson, graduate student, Chemistry 246, 3 p.m.; UMD Theatre presents: "Grease," Marshall Performing Arts Center, 8 p.m.

SATURDAY, Oct. 17 -- Men's Football: UMD vs. Bemidji State, Griggs Field, 1:30 p.m.; Men's Hockey: UMD vs. Michigan Tech, Hockey Hall of Fame, Eveleth, 7:30 p.m.; UMD Theatre presents "Grease," Marshall Performing Arts Center, 8 p.m.

ALL WEEK -- The Tweed Museum of Art is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays and from 2 to 5 p.m. weekends. There is no charge for admission. Current exhibits: Fiber Handcrafts Exhibition; American Paintings from the permanent collection; "Molas" from the permanent collection; photographs by Dan and Cheryl Younger.